★ ★ JERRY JONES ★ ★

JERRY JONES

Owner
President
General Manager

In one of the most dramatic eras of ownership in professional sports, Jerry Jones' stewardship of the Dallas Cowboys has brought unprecedented results and success to one of the world's most popular sports entities. His more than three-decade long journey reached a rare pinnacle with his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame as a member of the 2017 class of enshrinees, as Jones became just the 15th owner in history to earn a bust in Canton.

Aside from being one of just three current owners to guide their franchises to at least three Super Bowl titles, Jones' efforts and innovations in the areas of sports marketing, promotion, broadcasting, team operations and the development of AT&T Stadium and The Star have created a vivid imprint on the landscape of the NFL, the professional sports business equation, fan engagement and the American sports culture.

On the heels of his Hall of Fame selection, Jones was selected as one of the 100 Greatest Living Business Minds in commemoration of Forbes magazine's 100th year anniversary in 2017. In that same year, he was also recognized for his career contributions to sports in America by being named the 2017 recipient of the Sports Business Journal's Lifetime Achievement Award. Prior to his enshrinement in Canton, USA Today designated Jones as No. 1 on its list of the 100 Most Important People in the NFL in July of 2016.

In 2024 Forbes magazine and leading sports business media platform Sportico both recognized the Cowboys as the most valuable sports franchise in the world and the first to be valued at over $10 billion ($10.1B).

Highlighted by Super Bowl victories following the 1992, 1993 and 1995 seasons, Jones became the first owner in NFL history to lead his team to three league championships in his first seven years of ownership. In 1995 Dallas also became the first team in NFL history to win three Super Bowls in four seasons while tying the then NFL record for most Super Bowl victories by an organization with five.

The first decade of Jones' ownership closed with eight playoff appearances, six division titles, four conference championship game appearances and three world crowns as the Cowboys were named the NFL's Team of the 1990s. More recently, the Cowboys have won NFC East Division titles in 2007, 2009, 2014, 2016, 2018, 2021 and 2023, while the '23 club secured the 18th playoff appearance in Jones' 36 years of leadership. Dallas also established the club record for regular season wins (13) in 1992 and equaled that mark with 13 victories in 2007 and 2016.

Following the 2014 season, a year when the Cowboys posted a 12-4 record and won a home playoff game, Jones was named the NFL Executive of the Year by the Pro Football Writers Association of America.

Along with the success of the Cowboys on the field, Jones' vision and leadership provided the driving influence behind the concept, design and construction of AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas - a venue that is recognized internationally as perhaps the most spectacular and state-of-the-art sports stadium in the world.

Opened to the public in May 2009, the stadium's dramatic first season of operation resulted in the venue being named the Sports Facility of the Year by the Sports Business Journal. Along with that achievement for the team's new home, Jones was also named the 2009 Sports Executive of the Year by the SBJ.

The 100,000-plus capacity stadium set the attendance record for an NFL regular season game as 105,121 witnessed the Sept. 20, 2009 home opener, while the 108,713 who attended the NBA All-Star Game in 2010 became the largest crowd to witness a basketball game in the history of the sport. On May 8, 2021, the championship boxing match featuring Canelo Alvarez and Billy Joe Saunders drew 73,126 spectators to AT&T Stadium, marking the largest indoor crowd to ever witness a prizefight in U.S. history.

During the pandemic season of 2020, the Cowboys and AT&T Stadium safely hosted the most fans for NFL games throughout the league with a total attendance figure of 219,021 fans for Dallas' eight home games, an average of 27,378 per game.

With its architectural versatility and cutting-edge media capabilities, AT&T Stadium has become a visible beacon establishing North Texas as a focal point on the sports and entertainment canvas of North America.

The brilliant home of the Cowboys is a powerful catalyst in attracting a wide range of national and international events that will define the future of the region for generations to come. The stadium has already played host to Super Bowl XLV (February 2011), the NCAA Final Four in men's basketball (April 2014), the inaugural College Football Playoff Championship Game (January 2015), the Big 12 Championship game and the Cotton Bowl Classic, and in 2018 became the first NFL stadium to host the NFL Draft. AT&T Stadium also remains the only venue in the world to host an NBA All-Star Game, a Super Bowl, the Men's NCAA Final Four and the College Football Playoff Championship Game. Most recently, the city of Dallas was named one-of-16 host cities for FIFA World Cup 2026, with a tournament-high nine international soccer matches to be played at AT&T Stadium, and the stadium will once again host the NCAA Men's Final Four in 2030.

Jones recently turned his football development and marketing expertise to the World Headquarters and training facility of the Dallas Cowboys, as The Star in Frisco, Texas opened its doors for operation in the summer of 2016. Located in a rapidly growing community of more than 200,000 residents, The Star is a partnership with the City of Frisco and The Frisco Independent School District that places a strong focus on inspiring a solid future for high school football, youth sports and the next generation of players and fans by uniquely engaging them at the place where the Cowboys live, work and practice.

The Star is the only NFL training facility that is shared with a public high school athletic program. Since he took over as general manager in 1989, 46 different players drafted by Dallas have gone on to appear in a combined total of 153 Pro Bowls as Cowboys - 51 players and 170 Pro Bowls, including selections after leaving Dallas. Dallas has also signed 18 free agent players who have made 45 Pro Bowls while representing the Cowboys. Additionally, Dallas traded for three different players who made five Pro Bowls. Since 1989 the Cowboys have made 178 trades, the most celebrated of which was the 1989 deal that sent Herschel Walker to the Minnesota Vikings and provided the personnel foundation for three Super Bowl titles.

His recent efforts to stock the Dallas roster have resulted in some of the NFL's most productive drafts in recent history. Over the last decade-plus, Dallas has selected 15 players who have become Pro Bowlers: Zack Martin and DeMarcus Lawrence (2014), Byron Jones (2015), Ezekiel Elliott, Jaylon Smith and Dak Prescott (2016), Leighton Vander Esch (2018), Tony Pollard (2019), Tyler Biadasz, Trevon Diggs and CeeDee Lamb (2020), Micah Parsons (2021) and DaRon Bland, Jake Ferguson and Tyler Smith (2022). The 15 Pro Bowl draft picks are the most by any team over that span, and that group has gone on to earn a combined total of 38 Pro Bowl selections. Since 2010, Dallas has drafted 11 players who have also been named to at least one All-Pro team since their selection - most in the NFL. The Cowboys have also mined talent in creative ways outside of the Draft, signing or trading for four players in recent years who have been Pro Bowl selections, starting with the trade for Amari Cooper midway through the 2018 season and culminating with a trio of specials in punter Bryan Anger, kicker Brandon Aubrey and return man KaVontae Turpin - the latter two signing after successful stints in the USFL.

The foundation for the future success of the team has been secured through savvy draft maneuvers and key free agent acquisitions, starting up front on the offensive line. In the spring of 2025, Martin retired after an illustrious 11-year career that included nine Pro Bowls and seven first-team All-Pro honors, passing the torch to the young and ascending Tyler Smith. Smith has continued the tradition of excellence up front with two Pro Bowl selections in his first three seasons and leads a re-loaded group up front with first round draft picks Tyler Guyton (2024) and Tyler Booker (2025). Prescott opened his career by becoming the first rookie quarterback in Cowboys history to be named to the Pro Bowl and the first to win AP Offensive Rookie of the Year and became the Cowboys single-season touchdown leader with 37 touchdown passes in 2023, a season in which he finished second in the NFL MVP voting. Prescott was also named the NFL's Walter Payton Man of the Year for 2022, becoming the fourth Cowboy to earn that special recognition (Troy Aikman, Roger Staubach, Jason Witten). Lamb is another in the line of great Cowboys receivers to don the famed number 88 jersey, establishing a team rookie record with 74 catches in his first season, then surpassing the 1,000-yard mark in his second year before becoming the only Cowboys receiver with multiple 100-catch campaigns, eventually establishing a franchise record with 135 catches and 1,749 receiving yards in 2023.

Defensively, Diggs, Parsons and Bland anchor an ascending young group of players. Diggs tied the club record with 11 interceptions in 2021, while Parsons earned AP Defensive Rookie of the Year honors by establishing a Cowboys rookie record with 13.0 sacks and followed that up with 13.5 sacks in 2022 and a second straight AP first-team All-Pro selection – the first Cowboys defender to earn first-team All-Pro honors in each of his first two seasons and only the second NFL defender since the 1970 Merger, joining Lawrence Taylor in 1981-82. Parsons eclipsed 12.0 sacks in both 2023 and 2024, becoming the second NFL player since 1982 with at least 12.0 sacks in each of his first four seasons, joining Hall of Famer Reggie White. Bland set an NFL-record with five pick-sixes in his second pro season and led all defenders with nine interceptions in 2023, providing another ball-hawking, first-team All-Pro defender.

In an effort to re-tool the roster heading into the 2025 season, Dallas set a new bar by signing 10 outside free agents, the most in a single offseason since free agency began in 1994, and traded for four additional players, including the electric and uber talented wide receiver George Pickens to give Prescott a dynamic receiving duo to throw to moving forward.

In selecting the on-the-field leadership for the Cowboys, Jones hired a pair of coaches who won a combined three Super Bowls in Dallas: Jimmy Johnson (1992-1993) and Barry Switzer (1995). Chan Gailey followed with a division title and playoff appearances from 1998-99. In 2003 Jones successfully recruited two-time Super Bowl winner Bill Parcells to Dallas, and Parcells led the team to three winning seasons and two playoff trips in four years. In February 2007, Jones added another successful NFL head coach in Wade Phillips, who guided the club to a pair of division titles in his first three years (2007 and 2009) and a playoff victory in 2009.

In 2011 Jones named Jason Garrett as the team's eighth head coach after the former Cowboys quarterback guided the club to a 5-3 record as the interim coach in the second half of the 2010 season. Garrett added three division titles in 2014, 2016 and 2018, and his 79 career wins represent the second-most victories by a head coach in club history. In 2020 Jones hired Super Bowl XLV winning head coach Mike McCarthy as the newest head coach of the Dallas Cowboys, marking the fourth coach that Jones has selected who had either previously won a Super Bowl or would go on to lead the Cowboys to a world championship. In four seasons, McCarthy led the Cowboys to three consecutive 12-win campaigns, two division titles and three playoff appearances in consecutive years - both firsts since the 1992-95 Cowboys teams. Following the 2024 season, Jones elevated Brian Schottenheimer from offensive coordinator to the 10th head coach of the Cowboys, rewarding a coach with decades-long experience and a rich football lineage with his first head coaching opportunity.

In the last 46 years, 40 different owners have entered the NFL. Of that group, only Jerry Jones, former Denver Broncos owner Pat Bowlen, Clark Hunt (Kansas City) and Robert Kraft (New England) have guided their franchises to more than two Super Bowl championships. Moreover, Jones joins Art Rooney Sr., Jack Kent Cooke, Al Davis, Eddie DeBartolo, Kraft, Bowlen and Hunt as the only men to win at least three Super Bowls as NFL owners.

On the league front, Jones actively contributes his vision and enthusiasm to enhancing the NFL's status as the world's premier professional sports league by serving on a wide range of league committees. In his 36-year career, Jones has worked on 15 different NFL ownership committees for a combined total of 136 years. As a member of the Management Council Executive Committee, he was very involved in the 2011 and 2020 labor negotiations that resulted in the most recent Collective Bargaining Agreement between the NFL and its players. In addition to the CEC, Jones is currently the Chairman of the NFL Media O&O Committee, Chairman of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Committee and is a member of the NFL Media Committee. Jones also served on the committee that was charged with overseeing the search for a successor to retired NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue, a process that successfully landed current NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell in September 2006. In addition, Jones has served two prior terms as a member of the NFL's Competition Committee as well as prior stints on the Business Ventures Committee and the Health and Safety Committee.

His contributions and innovations in the areas of marketing, corporate sponsorships, television, stadium management, stadium development, labor negotiations and community service have made a visible imprint on the ever-evolving face of professional sports in America. Since becoming involved with the Cowboys, Jones' accomplishments have been recognized through his induction into the Boys & Girls Clubs of America Hall of Fame, the Texas Sports Hall of Fame (2007), the Texas Business Hall of Fame (2005), the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame (1999) and the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame (1998). In July 2012, Jones was recognized with the Lifetime Achievement Award by the Arkansas Sportscasters and Sportswriters Hall of Fame. In August 2007, he served as the presenter for Michael Irvin's induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, a recognition he was also named for by Emmitt Smith in Canton in August 2010, Larry Allen in 2013, Gil Brandt in 2019 and DeMarcus Ware in 2023. Jones was also selected for induction into the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame in 2020.

In April 2014 Jones received the prestigious Horatio Alger Award in Washington, D.C. and was inducted as a lifetime member into the Horatio Alger Association of Distinguished Americans. In May 2014, Jones was also recognized with the Lifetime Achievement Award presented by Pop Warner Little Scholars, Inc. In 2017 Jones was honored with the SEAL Legacy Award. In 2018 he was inducted into the North Texas Commercial Association of Realtors Hall of Fame for his contributions to the Dallas-Fort Worth real estate landscape with the construction of AT&T Stadium and The Star. Also in 2018, Jones was given the Governor's EMMY for long-time contributions to Texas television broadcasting by the Lone Star Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences.

In 2022 Jones was honored as an MD Anderson Living Legend, and earned the Walter Camp Football Foundation's "Distinguished American" award.

As a co-captain of the 1964 National Championship Arkansas Razorbacks, Jones is one of a small number of NFL owners who actually earned a significant level of success as a football player. He is the only man in the history of the NFL to play for a collegiate national championship football team and own a Super Bowl winner. In addition, Jones and the legendary George Halas are the only two men to become NFL owners after playing in a major college football bowl game. His current ties to the college game include membership on the Board of Directors for the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame.

A man of varied interests who will not rest on yesterday's achievements, he is a dedicated businessman and family man, sharing a vivid enthusiasm for both. Although Jones and his family are very involved in numerous civic and charitable causes, the Joneses have left an indelible local and national impression on the philanthropic landscape with their love and dedication to The Salvation Army.

For the past 28 seasons, the Jones family has dedicated the Cowboys Thanksgiving Day halftime show as a national showcase to kick off The Salvation Army's annual Red Kettle Campaign. Through the donation of national television airtime, the event has created a holiday tradition while helping to increase donations to The Salvation Army's annual fundraising efforts by more than $3.67 billion. Reba McEntire, Destiny's Child, Sheryl Crow, Carrie Underwood, Kenny Chesney and Dolly Parton are just a few of the distinguished artists who have provided entertainment for the holiday extravaganza.

The Salvation Army points to the annual Cowboys kickoff event as one of the most effective, creative and important innovations that has been developed in the long and storied history of the organization.

The Joneses received the Evangeline Booth Award in 1999, one of The Army's highest national community service awards, and have been selected for membership into the prestigious Salvation Army William Booth Society. Jerry and his wife, Gene, were also named to The Army's National Advisory Board in April 1998 shortly after being named the organization's Partners of the Year in 1997. In April 2007, the Joneses served as the honorary chairpersons for The Salvation Army's National Advisory Organizations Conference (NAOC) that was held in Dallas.

For 11 years, Gene and Jerry Jones served as hosts and underwrote the costs for the Super Lunch, a fundraising event for The Salvation Army Irving Corps Community Center. In 1998 the Gene and Jerry Jones Family Center for Children opened in conjunction with The Army.

As part of the Jones Family and the Dallas Cowboys commitment to Arlington, Texas, the home of the club's stadium, Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities will donate a total of $16.5 million to non-profit organizations serving youth in Arlington from 2009-2041.

In 2001 the Joneses were awarded the Chairman's Award by The Boys & Girls Clubs of America. In 2010 the Jones family endowed the North Texas Youth Education Town with a $1 million grant. Created as a lasting legacy of Super Bowl XLV, the North Texas YET is administered by The Salvation Army and provides North Texas youth with education, mentoring, fitness and character enrichment programs. In May of 2019, ground was broken on the Gene and Jerry Jones Family Hope Lodge in recognition of their lead gift on a project associated with the American Cancer Society that will provide housing to families of cancer patients on property located adjacent to the Baylor University Medical Center campus in Dallas.

In 2021 the Gene & Jerry Jones family made a historic $20 million contribution to the National Medal of Honor Museum Foundation. As Co-Chairs of the Foundation's National Leadership Council, Gene and Jerry Jones were actively involved in leading the capital campaign to design and construct the National Medal of Honor Museum and its Leadership Institute, which opened in Arlington, Texas, in 2025, as well as the forthcoming National Medal of Honor Monument in Washington, D.C. Together, these national treasures will stand in enduring recognition of the American heroes who have received the Medal of Honor, our country's highest recognition for valor in combat.

STEPHEN JONES

Chief Operating Officer
Co-Owner
Executive Vice President, Player Personnel
President, AT&T Stadium

With 36 years of NFL experience, Stephen Jones has established himself as one of the most successful and versatile executives in professional sports, as Co-Owner and the franchise's Chief Operating Officer. Jones also serves as the Cowboys' Executive Vice President of Player Personnel and President of AT&T Stadium.

Jones oversees the management and business operations for all aspects of the Dallas Cowboys and AT&T Stadium, while also overseeing the team's scouting and player personnel department. His work involves managing the organization's several hundred staff members, while also handling all of the club's salary cap and major player contract concerns. He is active in the recruitment and management of all major events that come to AT&T Stadium and The Star in Frisco. Jones' experience as a major college football player, and his years as one of the NFL's top executives, were instrumental in his appointment to the NFL's prestigious Competition Committee, which he currently serves as Co-Chairman of. His active involvement in stadium management, design and development has also landed him a spot on the NFL's New Stadium Committee.

Following the Cowboys 12-4 regular season finish and 2014 NFC Eastern Division title, Stephen and Jerry Jones were named the co-recipients of the NFL Executive of the Year Award as presented by Sports Illustrated's Monday Morning Quarterback.

Beginning in 1989, Jones has played an integral role in the team's dramatic rise from a 1-15 record to being the NFL's "Team of the Decade" with three Super Bowl titles in the 1990s. As he enters his 37th NFL season, Jones was a core architect of the Cowboys teams that compiled three consecutive 12-win regular seasons from 2021-23 - the first such streak since the 1992-95 squads. His recent work has seen the club restock its roster with some of the game's top talent, and the recent results have produced winning records in 12 of the last 20 seasons and division titles in 2007, 2009, 2014, 2016, 2018, 2021 and 2023. During his tenure with the team, Dallas has established the club record for regular season wins (13) in 1992 and equaled that mark with 13 victories in 2007 and 2016.

Over the last decade-plus, Jones has crafted one of the most impressive drafting records in the NFL. Dallas has selected 15 players who have become Pro Bowlers since 2014: Zack Martin and DeMarcus Lawrence (2014), Byron Jones (2015), Ezekiel Elliott, Jaylon Smith and Dak Prescott (2016), Leighton Vander Esch (2018), Tony Pollard (2019), Tyler Biadasz, Trevon Diggs and CeeDee Lamb (2020), Micah Parsons (2021) and DaRon Bland, Jake Ferguson and Tyler Smith (2022). The 15 Pro Bowl draft picks are the most by any team over that span, and that group has gone on to earn a combined total of 38 Pro Bowl selections. Since 2010, Dallas has drafted 11 players who have also been named to at least one All-Pro team since their selection - most in the NFL. The Cowboys have also mined talent in creative ways outside of the Draft, signing or trading for four players in recent years who have been Pro Bowl selections, starting with the trade for Amari Cooper midway through the 2018 season and culminating with a trio of specialists in punter Bryan Anger, kicker Brandon Aubrey and return man KaVontae Turpin - the latter two signing after successful stints in the USFL.

The foundation for the future success of the team has been secured through savvy draft maneuvers and key free agent acquisitions, starting up front on the offensive line. In the spring of 2025, Martin retired after an illustrious 11-year career that included nine Pro Bowls and seven first-team All-Pro honors, passing the torch to the young and ascending Tyler Smith. Smith has continued the tradition of excellence up front with two Pro Bowl selections in his first three seasons and leads a re-loaded group up front with first round draft picks Tyler Guyton (2024) and Tyler Booker (2025). Prescott opened his career by becoming the first rookie quarterback in Cowboys history to be named to the Pro Bowl and the first to win AP Offensive Rookie of the Year and became the Cowboys single-season touchdown leader with 37 touchdown passes in 2023, a season in which he finished second in the NFL MVP voting. Prescott was also named the NFL's Walter Payton Man of the Year for 2022, becoming the fourth Cowboy to earn that special recognition (Troy Aikman, Roger Staubach, Jason Witten). Lamb is another in the line of great Cowboys receivers to don the famed number 88 jersey, establishing a team rookie record with 74 catches in his first season, then surpassing the 1,000-yard mark in his second year before becoming the only Cowboys receiver with multiple 100-catch campaigns, eventually establishing a franchise record with 135 catches and 1,749 receiving yards in 2023.

Defensively, Diggs, Parsons and Bland anchor an ascending young group of players. Diggs tied the club record with 11 interceptions in 2021, while Parsons earned AP Defensive Rookie of the Year honors by establishing a Cowboys rookie record with 13.0 sacks and followed that up with 13.5 sacks in 2022 and a second straight AP first-team All-Pro selection – the first Cowboys defender to earn first-team All-Pro honors in each of his first two seasons and only the second NFL defender since the 1970 Merger, joining Lawrence Taylor in 1981-82. Parsons eclipsed 12.0 sacks in both 2023 and 2024, becoming the second NFL player since 1982 with at least 12.0 sacks in each of his first four seasons, joining Hall of Famer Reggie White. Bland set an NFL-record with five pick-sixes in his second pro season and led all defenders with nine interceptions in 2023, providing another ball-hawking, first-team All-Pro defender.

In an effort to improve the roster heading into the 2025 season, Dallas set a new bar by signing 10 outside free agents, the most in a single offseason since free agency began in 1994, and traded for four additional players, including the electric and uber-talented wide receiver George Pickens to give Prescott a dynamic receiving duo to throw to moving forward.

In the ever-evolving strategy that dictates a team's competitiveness in the current collective bargaining agreement, Jones' performance in managing the Cowboys salary cap, and the club's activity in free agency, has played a prominent role in the team's ability to compete at the NFL's highest level. Jones' involvement in shaping the Dallas roster under the salary cap was critical in allowing the Cowboys to maintain one of the NFL's most talented core group of players throughout the decade of the 1990s. His creativity and caretaking of the Cowboys cap played a key role in the team's 13 division titles, four conference championship game appearances and three world titles since 1989.

During a historic two-year period, Jones was involved in signing five Cowboys stars who were considered the best players in the game at their respective positions. Between September of 1993 and September of 1995, Jones helped orchestrate contract agreements with running back Emmitt Smith, quarterback Troy Aikman, fullback Daryl Johnston, wide receiver Michael Irvin and cornerback Deion Sanders.

Shortly after the turn of the century, Jones began spearheading the club's new stadium efforts, overseeing every element of the development and construction of the venue while also working closely with local government, community and business leaders. He was directly responsible for the club's successful referendum campaign in the fall of 2004 that saw the City of Arlington agree to join forces with the Cowboys in building a new state-of-the-art stadium later to be named AT&T Stadium.

Opened to the public in May of 2009, the stadium's dramatic first season of operation resulted in the venue being named the Sports Facility of the Year by the Sports Business Journal in May of 2010.

The 100,000-plus seat stadium established the attendance record for an NFL regular season game as 105,121 witnessed the September 20, 2009 home opener, while the 108,713 who attended the NBA All-Star Game on February 14, 2010 became the largest crowd to witness a game in the history of the sport.

With its architectural versatility and cutting-edge media capabilities, AT&T Stadium has become a visible beacon that has established North Texas as a major focal point on the sports and entertainment canvas of North America and around the world.

The brilliant home of the Cowboys has become a powerful catalyst in attracting a wide range of national and international events that will define the future of the region for generations to come. The stadium has already played host to Super Bowl XLV (February of 2011), the NCAA Final Four in men's basketball (April of 2014), the Big 12 Championship game, the inaugural College Football Playoff Championship Game (January of 2015) and in 2018 became the first NFL stadium to host the NFL Draft. Other top flight sporting events for the future include the annual Cotton Bowl classic, hosting a tournament-high nine matches for the 2026 FIFA World Cup and the 2030 NCAA Men's Final Four, just to name a few.

In the summer of 2013, Jones was the organization's point person in the negotiations that established the multi-year naming rights agreement for the Cowboys home in Arlington with AT&T.

AT&T Stadium remains the only venue in the world to host an NBA All-Star Game, a Super Bowl, the Men's NCAA Final Four and the College Football Playoff Championship Game.

Shortly after the new name for AT&T Stadium was announced, Jones took on the responsibilities of spearheading a partnership with the City of Frisco (TX) and the Frisco Independent School District to develop a new home for the Cowboys World Headquarters and training facility in Frisco. The Star in Frisco opened its doors for operation in the summer of 2016. Located in a rapidly growing community of more than 200,000 residents, The Star is a partnership with the City of Frisco and Frisco ISD that focuses on inspiring a strong future for high school football, youth sports and the next generation of players and fans by uniquely engaging them at the place where the Dallas Cowboys live, work and practice.

The Star is the only NFL training facility in the U.S. that is shared with a public high school athletic program. All 12 Frisco ISD high schools play home games within Ford Center at The Star, a state-of-the-art, 510,000-square-foot indoor athletic facility. With a capacity of 12,000 seats, Ford Center hosts a variety of events in addition to football games, such as concerts, collegiate basketball, professional boxing, award shows, soccer matches and meetings, to name a few.

The Star includes a 91-acre mixed-use development located on the Dallas Tollway. In addition to the team's headquarters, the project features shopping, dining, nightlife, athletic, fitness, event, hotel and residential options.

Prior to focusing much of his energy on the innovative projects in Arlington and Frisco, Jones' stewardship of historic Texas Stadium in Irving left behind a legacy of facility management that maximized the use and visibility of the venue into a year-round destination for sporting, entertainment, community and corporate events on an unprecedented level.

Jones has enjoyed a lifelong association with the game of football. A four-year letterman as a linebacker and special teams standout at the University of Arkansas, Jones was a starter for the Razorbacks in the Orange Bowl Classic Game that followed the 1986 season. Prior to attending the University of Arkansas, Jones was an all-state quarterback and a three-year starter at Catholic High School in Little Rock, Arkansas. In February of 2015, Jones was inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame, where he joined his father who was a 1999 inductee.

In 2016 Jones was awarded the Junior Achievement Legacy Award which goes to a person whose leadership supports academic excellence in Arkansas. Jones followed that honor up in 2017, being named the 2017 Arkansan of the Year by Easter Seals Arkansas.

He earned his degree in chemical engineering from Arkansas in 1988 and immediately went to work in the oil and gas business for JMC Exploration as an engineer. In 2013 he was inducted as a member of the Arkansas Academy of Chemical Engineers.

On Feb. 25, 1989, Jerry Jones purchased the Dallas Cowboys and installed Stephen into a key front office position as one-of-three vice presidents with the club.

Jones is a past president of the Dallas Chapter of the Young Presidents' Organization. He serves on the board of directors for Complexity Gaming as well as the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association. He also serves on the board for the Dallas Citizens Council. He is a former member of the NFL's Business Ventures Committee, and he is also a member of the board of directors for Legends Hospitality - the joint stadium catering venture involving the Dallas Cowboys and the New York Yankees organizations that Jones was instrumental in creating. In the spring of 2015, Jones was inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame.

Jones was born in Danville, Arkansas and raised in Little Rock. He and his wife, Karen, live in Highland Park, Dallas and have four children and four grandchildren.

JERRY JONES JR.

Chief Sales and Marketing Officer
Co-Owner

As Co-Owner and Chief Sales and Marketing Officer, Jerry Jones, Jr. is a key member of the Dallas Cowboys front office, overseeing the club's entire sales and marketing efforts, both those directed at the team's loyal fans as well as its corporate partners. With the Cowboys unique vertical structure, Jones leads a team that is not only responsible for the sales and marketing of the club, but also its vast merchandising business as well as all digital and broadcast media.

Jones was instrumental in the design and planning of AT&T Stadium, viewed as one of the world's truly unique sports and entertainment venues and he played an integral role in the development of the Dallas Cowboys World Headquarters and Training Facility located at The Star in Frisco, Texas. His desire to make the Cowboys practice facility about health and wellness, sports nutrition and sports medicine led to the building of the Baylor Scott and White Sports Therapy and Research Center. This 300,000-square-foot campus for sports medicine and sports performance opened its doors in June 2018. In keeping with his desire to create a destination for health and wellness, Jones was instrumental in building Cowboys Fit at The Star, a three-story 65,000-square-foot premier health and fitness center where members exercise and train to a Cowboy-centric workout routine. Since then, four other Cowboys Fit locations have been opened in Plano (June 2019), in the AT&T Discovery District in downtown Dallas (May 2020), Pflugerville (November 2020) and East Dallas (Summer 2022). In addition, he was instrumental in creating Cowboys Club, a first of its kind private membership club complete with private restaurant overlooking the practice fields.

From 2007 to 2008 Jones guided the transition of 65,000 season ticket holders as well as over 300 suite owners from Texas Stadium to the club's new home that opened in 2009. With a stadium capable of holding up to 100,000 fans, with eight club areas and 3.0 million square feet of space, this monumental effort required the expansion of the club's sales team to over 60 employees dedicated to personalized customer service. At the same time, Jones has also been deeply involved in the extension and expansion of the club's already sizable corporate sponsorship base. In recent years, Jones has directed the extension of long-term agreements with numerous valued partners like Miller Brewing, Ford, Bank of America, Pepsi and Dr Pepper as well as the expansion of the AT&T partnership to include stadium naming rights.

In both 2008 and 2009 these efforts were recognized by Sports Business Journal when Jones was named to their "40 Under 40" list of executives under the age of 40 who are making the greatest contribution to their organization and the world of sports and entertainment.

On the broadcast front, Jones oversaw the 2006 move to bring the club's radio broadcast in-house. The move added English radio to the club's stable of English and Spanish television programming as well as the Spanish radio broadcast. Dallas Cowboys Media Department now originates over 40 hours a week of original television, radio, podcasts and internet programming aired across the Dallas Cowboys Broadcasting Network in five states and their owned and operated distribution platforms including dallascowboys.com, Cowboys Mobile (iOS and Android) and Cowboys Now (on Roku, Amazon Fire and Apple TV). Through his work, Jones has helped foster the NFL's largest team-operated media broadcast network.

Jones has established a growing reputation at the league level as it relates to sales and marketing. In the past, he has served on the NFL's Marketing Executives Committee, the Internet Working Group Committee and the League's Digital Media Committee.

In 2001, to help further the Dallas Cowboys marketing and brand image initiatives, Jones became the CEO of Dallas Cowboys Merchandising, Ltd. (DCM), a company formed in 1996 to design, manufacture and distribute Dallas Cowboys merchandise throughout the world. To date, the Cowboys are still the only major league sports team to form such an entity, enabling their fans to have the unique opportunity to enjoy the authenticity of team merchandise and memorabilia, straight from the source. DCM and the Dallas Cowboys continue to thrive as one of the top teams in NFL sales over the past 20 years. Today DCM has over 30 retail locations throughout Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico, including the 15,000-square-foot Pro Shop in AT&T Stadium and a 7,000-square-foot Pro Shop at the team headquarters facility, The Star in Frisco, TX. In 2020 DCM moved into a 400,000-square-foot manufacturing and distribution headquarters in Frisco, TX.

Jones took over as the club's Chief Marketing Officer in 2001 after first joining the club in 1996 as Vice President and General Counsel. He spent his early years negotiating rookie contracts, local radio and television broadcast rights fees and sponsorship agreements. He was also instrumental in launching the Dallas Cowboys official website, which continues to be at the forefront of internet technology and has become one of the NFL's most comprehensive and innovative team pages. In 2003 the site won the NFL's award for best overall team website, and in 2006, the site won the NFL's award for best content. With Jones' leadership, dallascowboys.com has had higher unique visitors, page views, and time spent on site every year since the league began tracking team sites. Additionally, they boast the largest social media community in the NFL.

Jones, born Sept. 27, 1969, earned his law degree from Southern Methodist University in 1995. He completed his undergraduate coursework at Georgetown University, where he majored in political science and graduated with a BA in 1992. Jones and his wife reside in Dallas, Texas with their children.

Brian Schottenheimer was named the 10th head coach of the Dallas Cowboys on Jan. 24, 2025 after two seasons as the team's offensive coordinator.

Over Schottenheimer's two seasons as the steward of the Cowboys offense, Dallas ranked second in completions (826), third in pass attempts (1,251) and sixth in big pass plays (25-plus yards, 69), points-per-game (25.3) and total first downs (712) while also finishing with the seventh-lowest sack percentage on passing plays (5.9%).

The Cowboys battled through a littany of injuries throughout the 2024 season, including injuries to key offensive cogs Dak Prescott (nine games missed due to injury), Zack Martin (seven), CeeDee Lamb (two) and Jake Ferguson (three). Despite those obstacles, Dallas had several players reach career milestones. Rico Dowdle eclipsed 1,000 yards for the first time in his career (1,079), becoming the first undrafted player in franchise history to reach the milestone. CeeDee Lamb also completed a standout season for the club, earning Pro Bowl honors and a second-team All-Pro nod after tallying 100 receptions for the third consecutive season to join Brandon Marshall and Michael Thomas as the only three players in NFL history with 100 catches in three of their first five NFL campaigns. Tyler Smith also earned a Pro Bowl berth after holding the fort for an offensive line that ranked ninth in sack percentage on the year (5.6%).

In his first year as the Cowboys offensive coordinator, Dallas led the league in scoring offense (29.9 points-per-game), ranked fifth in total offense (371.6 yards-per-game) and third in passing yards-per-game (258.6), all higher averages than 2022. Under Schottenheimer, Dallas scored 509 total points in 2023, the second-most points scored in a season in franchise history. Dallas also led the league with five 40-point games, tied for the most such games in team history. Schottenheimer, along with McCarthy, emphasized complementary football, as Dallas' 16 giveaways tied for the second-fewest in the league in 2023 and were the third-fewest turnovers in a season in the club's 63-year history. Schottenheimer, who primarily worked with Scott Tolzien and the quarterbacks in practice, assisted Prescott to a career season. Prescott led the NFL with 36 touchdown passes and totaled career-highs in completion percentage (69.5%) and passer rating (105.9) while finishing second in the league MVP voting at NFL Honors.

Schottenheimer, a veteran coach with 25 years of NFL coaching experience and 15 years as an offensive coordinator at the pro level, previously served as a consultant for the Cowboys throughout the 2022 season, studying future opponents and assisting both the offensive and defensive units with game planning and self-scouting.

Before joining Dallas, Schottenheimer was the passing game coordinator for Jacksonville during the 2021 season, assisting with the Jaguars No. 1 overall selection, Trevor Lawrence, who finished his rookie season with a single-season team rookie record 3,641 passing yards on a rookie record 359 completions.

Previously, Schottenheimer spent three seasons (2018-20) as the Seattle Seahawks offensive coordinator, in which he helped lead the Seahawks to three consecutive postseason appearances. Over those three seasons, Seattle ranked third in touchdown passes (106), passer rating (106.8) and rushing yards-per-game (140.2), second in big play rush percentage (10-plus yards, 14.0%) and sixth in points-per-game (26.9).

In 2020 the team set franchise records for points scored (459) and points-per-game (28.7), while Russell Wilson marked his career milestones in touchdowns (40) and completion percentage (68.8) en route to his seventh Pro Bowl.

Additionally, Schottenheimer served as the quarterbacks coach for the Indianapolis Colts from 2016-17, working with Pro Bowl passer Andrew Luck, who established a then single-season career-high in completion percentage (63.5) and finished the season ranked eighth in passing yards (4,240), fifth in passing touchdowns (31) and ninth in passer rating (96.4).

Schottenheimer served as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Georgia in 2015 when the Bulldogs totaled 4,904 yards of offense and averaged 190.4 rush yards-per-game behind the backfield tandem of Sony Michel (1,161) and Nick Chubb (747), the latter of whom led all Division I players with 8.1 yards-per-rush on the year.

Prior to his return to the collegiate ranks, Schottenheimer spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams (2012-14). The Rams tallied 38 touchdowns in 2013, which was then the most in a single season for the franchise since 2006 when they reached the endzone 39 times. Under Schottenheimer, Zac Stacy rushed for 973 yards - the fourth-most rushing yards in franchise history by a rookie - while Jared Cook set the Rams then single-season record for receiving yards by a tight end (671).

Schottenheimer spent six seasons as the New York Jets offensive coordinator (2006-11), including assembling an offense that helped the Jets earn back-to-back appearances in the AFC Championship Game from 2009-10 while also leading the NFL in rushing (160.3 yards-per-game). During those two seasons, Schottenheimer tutored quarterback Mark Sanchez, who joined Ben Roethlisberger as the only two quarterbacks in NFL history to reach the conference championship in their first two seasons in the league.

In four seasons with San Diego as the quarterbacks coach (2002-05), Schottenheimer helped Drew Brees become the NFL Comeback Player of the Year and earn Pro Bowl honors for the first time in his career after throwing 27 touchdown passes and finishing third in the NFL in passer rating in 2004.

Prior to San Diego, Schottenheimer worked for his father, Marty, in Washington and Kansas City. He was an offensive assistant with the Chiefs in 1998 and was the quarterbacks coach during his lone season with Washington in 2001.

In between those two stops, Schottenheimer moved to the collegiate level, overseeing tight ends at Southern California in 2000 and wide receivers at Syracuse in 1999.

Schottenheimer got his start as an offensive assistant under Dick Vermeil with the St. Louis Rams in 1997.

As a player, Schottenheimer earned three letters as a quarterback at the University of Florida from 1994-96, where he played under Steve Spurrier and backed up Heisman Trophy winner Danny Wuerffel during the Gators 1996 National Championship season. His career began at the University of Kansas where he played one season in 1992 before transferring to Florida.

Schottenheimer and his wife, Gemmi, have a son, Sutton, and a daughter, Savannah.

Adams, a former wide receiver himself, most recently spent the last three years as the co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Oregon, where he developed key players such as Tez Johnson and Troy Franklin. In 2024 Johnson led the Ducks and ranked 14th in FBS with 83 receptions to go along with 898 yards and 10 touchdowns (tied for 11th in FBS). Two seasons ago, also under Adams, Franklin's 1,383 receiving yards were sixth in the nation. Under Adams, Oregon had the 13th-ranked passing attack in the country (279.5 yards-per-game) in 2024.

Prior to Oregon, Adams spent three seasons as the wide receivers coach at the University of Washington. Two of Adams' top recruits, Jalen McMillan (470 yards) and Rome Odunze (415) finished first and third on the team in receiving yards in 2021 while combining to catch seven touchdowns. He also developed several young receivers during the COVID-shortened 2020 season, including sophomore Puka Nacua, who was drafted by the LA Rams in 2023 and was the runner up AP NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year. Odunze was the ninth overall selection in the 2024 NFL Draft, and McMillan was a third round selection by Tampa Bay in 2024.

Adams' first experience as an offensive coordinator came at Western Kentucky, where he directed a high-flying passing attack that helped the Hilltoppers make the 2017 Cure Bowl. He coached six All-Conference USA players at Western Kentucky and mentored quarterback Mike White, who now plays for the Buffalo Bills and was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in the 2018 NFL Draft. In 2017 the Hilltoppers led C-USA and ranked seventh nationally in passing offense (335.0).

Adams took his first FBS job at Boise State and spent his first two years (2014-15) as wide receivers coach before his promotion to passing game coordinator in 2016. The Broncos went 10-3 in 2016, and under Adams, Boise State led the Mountain West in passing offense with 298.3 yards-per-game.

As the wide receivers coach at Eastern Washington (2009-13), Adams was a key figure in the development of Super Bowl MVP Cooper Kupp. In 2013 Kupp won the Jerry Rice Award after leading the nation with 1,691 receiving yards, the fourth-most in FCS history. He became the second freshman wide receiver since 1990 to earn first-team FCS All-America honors (Randy Moss, 1996).

Before moving back to the Pacific Northwest, Adams coached running backs at Chattanooga in 2008 and wide receivers at Prosser, Wash., High School in 2007. While at Prosser High School, Adams worked under Tom Moore, the father of current New Orleans Saints head coach Kellen Moore, and helped Prosser High to a Class 2A WIAA state title.

Adams began his coaching career as the wide receivers and kick returners coach at his alma mater, Montana State.

Adams' collegiate playing career began as a wide receiver at Oregon State before transferring to Montana State. He still ranks in the top-10 in Montana State history in terms of receiving yards (1,635), despite playing for the Bobcats for only two seasons. He earned honorable mention All-America and first-team All-Big Sky in 2002.

The Dallas Cowboys hired Klayton Adams as offensive coordinator on Brian Schottenheimer's inaugural coaching staff for the 2025 season.

Adams is a veteran coach with 19 years experience at the collegiate and NFL level and brings a strong foundation of run-game designs and blocking schemes with him to Dallas.

Adams spent the 2023-24 seasons with the Arizona Cardinals as the offensive line coach, helping design one of the most effective run games in the league and resurrecting the career of running back James Conner, who saw a career resurgence with the Cardinals. Over those two years, Arizona ranked third in rushing offense (141.6 yards-per-game), second in rushing average (5.02 yards-per-carry) and led the league big-play rushing (10-plus yards on 15.4% of carries). The Cardinals recorded seven games with 200 yards on the ground during Adams' tenure - third behind only Baltimore (nine) and Philadelphia (eight) - and averaged a first down on 28.2% of rush attempts, the third-best mark league-wide.

In 2024 Arizona built off its smashing success from the previous season, recording the fourth-highest rushing total in franchise history (2,451 yards) and the highest rushing average ever by a Cardinals offense, averaging 5.29 yards-per-carry. Conner again led the team in rushing, eclipsing 1,000 yards for the second straight season and second time in his career. The Cardinals offensive front allowed only 30 sacks on the year, the fifth-fewest in the league.

James Conner recorded the first 1,000-yard season of his career in 2023 behind Adams' offensive line unit, and the season marked just the second time since 1970 - first time in 44 years - the Cardinals finished a season ranked in the top-five in the league in rushing yards, finishing fourth with 2,365 yards. Paris Johnson started all 17 games at right tackle as a rookie for the offense and helped the Cardinals lead the NFL with 23 runs of 20+ yards, joining Baltimore, Philadelphia and Minnesota as the only four teams to have at least 23 runs of 20+ yards in the last 10 years.

Adams coached tight ends his final two seasons (2021-22) with Indianapolis after working as the team's assistant offensive line coach for two years (2019-20).

Adams coached a Colts offense that finished second in rushing yards-per-game (194.4) and ninth in points-per-game (26.5) in 2021. His tight end group combined for 64 receptions for 724 yards and seven scores that season, supplementing a Colts rushing attack that featured Jonathan Taylor, who put together one of the best single-season performances in team history. Taylor led the NFL in scrimmage yards (2,171), rushing yards (1,811), rushing touchdowns (18), 100-yard rushing games (10) and first down runs (107) and ranked second in total points (120) by a non-kicker.

In 2020 Adams assisted a Colts offensive line that tied for the second-fewest sacks allowed in the NFL (21). Taylor became just the fifth rookie in franchise history to have 1,000 rushing yards (1,169) and finished third in the NFL in rushing. Quenton Nelson (first-team) and Ryan Kelly (second-team) each earned All-Pro honors and were selected to the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive year.

The Colts tied for the ninth-fewest sacks allowed in the NFL (32) and finished seventh in rushing (133.1 yards-per-game) in 2019. It was the team's first top-10 finish in rushing since 2001. Nelson and Kelly earned their first Pro Bowl selections, marking the first time since 2006 that two Colts offensive linemen made the Pro Bowl.

Prior to the NFL, Adams spent six seasons at Colorado where he was the team's co-offensive coordinator/offensive line coach in 2018 after spending two seasons (2016-17) as the Buffaloes offensive line coach and three years (2013-15) coaching running backs/tight ends. He helped running back Phillip Lindsay become the first player in school history to have 1,000-plus rushing yards in back-to-back seasons (1,474 in 2017 and 1,189 in 2016).

Adams coached tight ends for two seasons (2011-12) at San Jose State, spent two seasons (2009-10) at Sacramento State as the team's offensive tackles/tight ends coach in 2009 prior to being promoted to offensive line coach in 2010.

He spent two seasons at Western Washington (2007-08) as run game coordinator/offensive line coach after starting his coaching career at his alma mater, Boise State, in 2005 as a student assistant then as an offensive graduate assistant in 2006.

Adams played center at Boise State where he was a part of two WAC Championship teams (2003-04) that combined for a 24-2 record. He earned second-team All-WAC honors as a senior in 2004.

He graduated from Boise State with a bachelor's degree in Mass Communications. He and his wife, Stefani, have three daughters, Mya, Emmy and Harper.

Prior to arriving in Dallas, Borgonzi spent the last three seasons as the linebackers coach with the Chicago Bears. While in Chicago and working under Eberflus, Borgonzi helped elevate a Bears defense that was one of the best in the league in 2023. Chicago's 86.4 rushing yards allowed-per-game and 1,468 total rushing yards allowed on the season were both the fewest in the NFL. The Bears became just the seventh NFL team since 1970, and third since 2000, to go from last or second to last in rush defense to top-five the following season. Chicago allowed only one 100-yard rusher during the entire 2023 campaign (Week 18 - Aaron Jones, 111).

While in Chicago, Borgonzi was instrumental in the development of T.J. Edwards and Tremaine Edmunds. In 2023 Edwards finished seventh in the NFL with 153 tackles, which was third on the Bears single-season tackle list (since 1991).

Before Chicago, Borgonzi spent four seasons under Eberflus with the Indianapolis Colts. While in Indianapolis, the Colts were the only NFL defensive unit to be ranked in the top-10 in scoring defense, run defense and takeaways in each of the 2020 and 2021 seasons. The Colts also finished in the top-10 in the league in run defense and takeaways in all four of Borgonzi's seasons as linebackers coach. Borgonzi helped mentor four-time All-Pro and three-time Pro Bowl linebacker Shaquille Leonard into one of the most productive players at his position.

Prior to his four-year stint with Indianapolis, Borgonzi served as defensive quality control/assistant linebackers coach at Tampa Bay for four seasons (2014-17). In 2016 the Buccaneers defense forced 29 takeaways, the third-highest mark in the league.

Borgonzi embarked on his NFL coaching career with the Dallas Cowboys as a coaching assistant, starting out on the defensive side of the ball, specifically with the secondary (2011-12). In 2013 he became an offensive assistant, spending most of his time with the offensive line.

Before the NFL, Borgonzi began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Syracuse, working with the secondary and defensive line, all while earning his master's degree in education. He then moved on to Harvard, where he served as the defensive backs coach from 2008-10.

A native of Everett, Mass., Borgonzi graduated from Amherst College with a degree in law, jurisprudence and social thought. He was a former inside linebacker at Amherst, starting three seasons and named team captain during his senior year.

The Dallas Cowboys hired Andre Curtis as their defensive pass game coordinator for the 2025 season following a three-year stint under Matt Eberflus with the Chicago Bears and a 19-year pedigree coaching in the NFL.

CURTIS' COACHING HISTORY

2000-03 .. Virginia Military Institute, LB

2018-21 .. Seattle Seahawks, Def. Pass Game Coord.
2022-24 .. Chicago Bears, Safeties

Curtis was the safeties coach from 2022-24 in Chicago, working under Eberflus to coach one of the best ball-hawking secondaries in the NFL. During those three seasons, Chicago ranked sixth in the NFL - and just ahead of Dallas - with 47 interceptions. Curtis also helped instruct a young safety in Jaquan Brisker, who recorded 6.0 sacks from the safety position in his first three NFL seasons, which ranked sixth among all defensive backs in the league. Brisker also had 4.0 sacks in his 2022 rookie season, the most ever by a Bears rookie defensive back.

During Curtis' time in Seattle (2015-21), six defensive backs combined to make nine trips to the Pro Bowl in Kam Chancellor (2015), Richard Sherman (2015, 2016), Earl Thomas (2015, 2017), Shaquill Griffin (2019), Jamal Adams (2020) and Quandre Diggs (2020, 2021).

In 2021 Curtis coached Diggs to his second-career Pro Bowl selection after recording five interceptions and a then career-high 94 tackles. It was Diggs' second consecutive season with five picks, following his five from the 2020 season, where he finished fourth in the NFL. Under Curtis' tutelage in 2020, Adams set the NFL record for most sacks by a defensive back in a season (9.5) and became the first defensive back to lead his team in sacks since 2011 (Roman Harper, 7.5).

Curtis was promoted to defensive backs coach in 2017 and oversaw a defensive backfield that ranked 12th in passes defensed (78) and tied for the league lead with three pick-sixes while holding opponents to 209.2 pass yards-per-game (sixth) and only 19 touchdown passes (seventh).

Sherman earned a Pro Bowl berth in 2016 after recording 13 pass breakups, which combined with teammate DeShawn Shead (14) represented one-of-seven defensive back duos in the NFL to tally 12 pass breakups apiece.

In his first season with Seattle in 2015, Curtis worked as an assistant secondary and safeties coach. With Curtis' help, the Seahawks secondary boasted three Pro Bowlers in Chancellor, Sherman and Thomas for the third consecutive season as they helped Seattle rank second in total defense (291.8 yards-per-game) and pass defense (210.3) in the NFL.

Prior to his arrival in Seattle, Curtis spent two seasons with the New Orleans Saints as the assistant secondary coach (2012-14). In 2014 he worked closely with safety Kenny Vaccaro, who was a PFWA All-Rookie selection as he led the secondary with 93 tackles.

Curtis joined the NFL as a defensive quality control coach for the Giants from 2006-08. He went on to coach defensive backs/safeties for the St. Louis Rams from 2009-11, and in 2011, the Rams finished seventh in the NFL in pass defense (206.7).

Curtis cut his teeth coaching at his alma mater, Virginia Military Institute, where he oversaw the linebacker unit from 2000-03. He then coached defensive ends at Georgia Southern from 2004-05.

During his time at VMI, Curtis worked training camps for the N.Y. Jets and Tampa Bay Buccaneers as part of the Bill Walsh Minority Coaching Fellowship.

Eberflus returns to Dallas in 2025 after three years as the Chicago Bears head coach. With Eberflus at the helm in 2023, Chicago led the league in total rushing yards allowed (1,468) and rushing yards allowed-per-game (86.4), marking just the second time a team improved from last to first in the category. Eberflus' unit also ranked second in opponent rushing first downs (88) and opponent rushing touchdowns (eight) in 2023.

During Eberflus' tenure, cornerback Jaylon Johnson and defensive lineman Montez Sweat earned their first career Pro Bowl nods.

Prior to Chicago, the former linebacker served a four-year stint as defensive coordinator for Indianapolis. Eberflus made an immediate impact, taking the Colts from 30th in scoring and total defense in 2017 to 10th and 11th, respectively, in 2018. The improvement continued in 2019 as Eberflus unit claimed seventh in rushing defense (97.9) and top-10 marks in interceptions (15) and takeaways (23).

Eberflus helped linebacker Shaquille Leonard earn NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year in 2018, as Leonard led the NFL in tackles (111). Leonard went on to earn three AP All-Pro nods under Eberflus.

The Colts best defensive performance under Eberflus came in 2020, highlighted by a No. 2-ranked run defense that allowed an AFC-best 90.5 yards-per-game, on their way to an 11-5 campaign and playoff appearance. Indianapolis was the only defense to finish top-10 in takeaways, run defense and fewest points allowed in each of Eberflus' last two seasons.

In 2016 the Dallas defense tied for fifth in the NFL with 79 tackles for loss, led by Sean Lee's 12 tackles for loss.

Eberflus was instrumental in developing Lee, who was drafted in the second round by Dallas in 2010. Lee ranks eighth in franchise history with 995 career tackles, and under Eberflus from 2011-17, Lee eclipsed the 100-tackle mark in five-of-seven seasons and was selected to back-to-back Pro Bowls in 2015 and 2016.

During his first season with the Cowboys in 2011, Eberflus inherited a group that was spearheaded by All-Pro DeMarcus Ware, who registered 19.5 sacks, good for second in the NFL and tops amongst all linebackers in the league.

Eberflus made his NFL coaching debut in 2009, serving as linebackers coach for the Cleveland Browns from 2009-10, where he tutored David Bowens. Bowens made the transition from outside to inside linebacker, registering a career-high 71 tackles in his first season under Eberflus.

Before moving to the NFL, Eberflus spent 17 seasons coaching at the collegiate level. He spent his final eight seasons in the college ranks as defensive coordinator at Missouri from 2001-08. He found his coaching start at his alma mater, Toledo, as a student assistant in 1992.

The Toledo, Ohio native was a four-year letterwinner and three-year starter at linebacker for the Rockets, nabbing first-team All-Mid-American conference honors twice. After earning his bachelor's degree in education in 1993, Eberflus was inducted into the Toledo Athletic Hall of Fame in 2004.

Ryan Feder arrived in Dallas in 2020 as one of Dallas' quality control/analysts, working primarily with the defense and linebackers unit. In 2023 Feder moved to the offensive side of the ball, where he helped with quarterbacks, and in 2024 he was officially named the assistant quarterbacks coach/game management.

Feder will play a key role on Brian Schottenheimer's inaugural staff in 2025 as game management coordinator, continuing to his work in helping to prepare game plans and assist in the development of the quarterbacks.

Feder's responsibilities also include devising a plan for specific game management decisions.

In 2024 the Cowboys had three different signal callers start games, as Dak Prescott (eight starts) missed a large chunk of games due to injury and forced Cooper Rush (eight) and Trey Lance (one) into duty. Despite the adversity, Dallas finished the season 11th in passing yards (4,092), tied for 13th in passing touchdowns (23) and eighth in completions (398).

As part of the offensive staff in 2023, Feder helped design an offensive game plan that helped the Cowboys lead the league in scoring offense (29.9 points-per-game) and rank fifth in total offense (371.6 yards-per-game). While working with the quarterbacks, Feder was part of a room that featured Dak Prescott, who led the NFL with 36 touchdown passes in 2023 and finished as the MVP runner-up. He also assisted in the development of Trey Lance, who was acquired from San Francisco via trade prior to the 2023 regular season.

From 2020-22, Feder helped coach a linebackers unit featuring two-time All-Pro Micah Parsons and Leighton Vander Esch. Parsons set the franchise rookie record with 13.0 sacks in 2021 - tied for the third-most by a rookie in NFL history - and became the first player in team history to be named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Parsons followed that up with 13.5 sacks in 2022 while finishing second in Defensive Player of the Year voting. Feder also helped guide Vander Esch (100 tackles in 2022) to his first 100-tackle season since his rookie year in 2018.

After departing Green Bay in 2018, Feder spent 2019 as a graduate assistant at Nebraska, assisting with the defensive backs while also pursuing a master's degree in business administration.

He spent four seasons in Green Bay, coaching across both sides of the ball in game management and football technology roles, first working with the quarterbacks in 2015 and then shifting to defense where he helped prepare defensive backs and linebackers from 2016-18.

After earning his bachelor's degree in management and marketing from Florida State, Feder earned a law degree with a specialization in sports law from Tulane. While at Tulane Law School, Feder worked for two seasons as an analyst for Pro Football Focus, collecting and analyzing player participation data for NFL and NCAA teams and generating advanced scouting reports to target team trends and inefficiencies.

Feder also spent one year as an intern at Pro Sports Inc., assisting with 2014 NFL Draft preparation, including analyzing positional player contract structures and trends and researching and analyzing undrafted free agent signings and contract trends. During those three years, he also was a writer for OverTheCap.com, a website which analyzes the NFL salary cap.

Feder lives in DFW with his wife, Abby.

2014-15 .....Northwestern State, WR
2016-17 .....Samford, RB/Run Game Coord.
2018-20 .....Iowa, RB/Recruiting Coord.
2021-23 .....LA Chargers, RB
2024.....New Orleans Saints, RB

The Dallas Cowboys hired Derrick Foster as running backs coach for the 2025 season after four seasons working in the NFL in the same capacity.

Foster coached running backs for the New Orleans Saints in 2024, tutoring a group that included Alvin Kamara - an explosive back who ranked sixth in the NFL with 106.6 scrimmage yards-per-game and ranked second among all running backs with 543 receiving yards on the year. Kamara totaled 950 yards on the ground, leading the Saints in rushing for the seventh consecutive season.

Prior to his time in New Orleans, Foster worked for three years as the running backs coach for the LA Chargers (2021-23), guiding one of the most explosive rushers in the league during that span. Under the direction of Foster, Austin Ekeler totaled 44 regular season scrimmage touchdowns (20 in 2021, 18 in 2022 and six in 2023), ranking first in the NFL over that span. Ekeler's 228 receptions for 1,805 yards with 14 touchdowns led NFL running backs in catches and receiving yardage over the three-season span under Foster, while tying for first in touchdown grabs.

In 2023, despite missing three games with an ankle injury, Ekeler led the Chargers in rushing for the fourth consecutive season with 628 yards and ran for a club-best five scores, adding 51 receptions for 436 yards and one touchdown through the air.

Ekeler set single-season career-highs in 2022 with 1,637 total yards from scrimmage, 13 rushing touchdowns, 915 rushing yards and 107 receptions. His 107 catches led all running backs, tied for the fifth-most in the NFL, and were tied for the second-most by a running back in a single season in NFL history. He also led the NFL in 2022 with 843 yards after catch. Ekeler was one of an NFL-record six players on the team to top 500 receiving yards and three touchdown grabs in the same season.

In 2021 Ekeler established numerous career benchmarks under Foster's tutelage, as he tied for an NFL-high with 20 scrimmage touchdowns, becoming the fourth Charger ever to have a share of the league lead in touchdowns for a season. His 20 scrimmage scores tied for the second-most by any Charger in a single season. The season also marked Ekeler's second with eight receiving touchdowns (2019), joining Pro Football Hall of Fame running back Marshall Faulk (2000 and 2001 seasons) as the only running backs in the common draft era (since 1967) with multiple seasons of eight-plus touchdown grabs. Ekeler scored nine touchdowns in prime time games, tying Hall of Famer Emmitt Smith (1995) for the second-most by any player in a single season in NFL history, trailing only Hall of Fame wide wide receiver Randy Moss' 11 in 2007 with New England. Foster's coaching helped the offense rank fourth in the NFL in total offense (390.2 yards-per-game), and the Chargers scored 181 points in the fourth quarter, the second-most in a single season in NFL history.

Prior to leading the running backs group for the Bolts, Foster spent three seasons at the University of Iowa (2018-20). Under Foster's direction as running backs coach/offensive recruiting coordinator in 2020, sophomore Tyler Goodson was named first-team All-Big Ten by both media and conference coaches after carrying the ball 143 times for 812 yards with seven touchdowns in an eight-game COVID-abbreviated season. He was the first Hawkeyes running back since 2008 to earn All-Conference honors.

Foster joined the Hawkeyes after a two-year stint at Samford University (2016-17), where he served as run game coordinator/running backs coach, helping lead the Bulldogs to two straight FCS playoff appearances. Foster coached three seasons at Northwestern State (La.) from 2013-15, where coached running backs (2013) and wide receivers (2014-15), developing some of the top wideouts in program history. In 2014 Ed Eagan set the program's single-season receptions record (73) and single-game receiving record (238) on a record-tying 13 receptions under Foster's coaching, spurring a stint in the NFL where he first signed as an undrafted free agent with the Cowboys in 2016. Foster also tutored Bryant Mitchell, who went on to play for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and in the CFL.

Foster broke into the coaching ranks as an assistant coach at the University of Tennessee (2012) and Valdosta State University (2011), assisting the offensive coaching staff, particularly the running backs, and special teams units.

Foster played running back and wide receiver at Southwest Baptist (Mo.). He started 41-of-44 career game appearances for the Bearcats and finished his career with 2,062 all-purpose yards. He graduated in 2010 with a bachelor's degree in sports management and went on to earn a master's degree in public administration from Valdosta State in 2013.

Foster and his wife, Bianca, have two children - Cooper and Brielle.

Nash was elevated to the lead role on the strength staff prior to the 2021 season after spending the 2020 season with the team as an assistant strength coach. In Nash's first year with the team, he was forced to navigate a devastating tragedy when head strength and conditioning coach Markus Paul passed away mid-season. Nash was thrust into a leadership role to finish the 2020 season, and he was hired in that position full-time going forward after demonstrating tremendous poise, cohesion and leadership.

Widely regarded as one of the top college offensive line coaches, Riley comes to Dallas after six seasons at Kansas State. He was the Wildcats offensive line coach from 2019-23 and the offensive coordinator in 2024.

In 2024, his only season as offensive coordinator, Kansas State averaged 30.8 points-per-game and ranked second in the Big 12 - 11th in FBS - in rushing offense (215.5 yards-per-game). Under Riley, running back DJ Giddens ranked fourth in the conference with 1,343 rushing yards, while dual-threat quarterback Avery Johnson finished with the second-most rushing yards (739) among Big 12 quarterbacks.

In each of his six seasons as the Wildcats offensive line coach, Riley's front surrendered fewer than 2.0 sacks-per-game, one-of-nine FBS programs to hold a streak of six years allowing less than 2.0 sacks-per-game. From 2019-24, Kansas State led the Big 12 in rushing yards (15,909).

Riley was instrumental in developing former Wildcat offensive lineman - and current Dallas Cowboy - Cooper Beebe.

Under Riley, Beebe was named the 2022 and 2023 Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year along with earning Consensus All-America honors in 2023, the first offensive lineman in school history to earn the distinction. Along with Beebe, fellow Wildcat offensive lineman KT Leveston was drafted in the seventh round of the 2024 NFL Draft by the LA Rams.

In 2023 Wildcat offensive linemen Hayden Gillum, Beebe, Leveston and Carver Willis were all named to the All-Big 12 team, the fourth time in Riley's six seasons on staff that he coached at least three linemen to All-Conference honors.

Prior to Kansas State, Riley spent six seasons at North Dakota State. After coaching tight ends and fullbacks in 2013, Riley moved to offensive line for the final five years in Fargo, N.D., and also became the Bison's run game coordinator in 2017 and 2018. While Riley was at North Dakota State, the Bison won five national championships.

Each of Riley's six years on staff at North Dakota State, the Bison averaged at least 235 rushing yards-per-game and ranked in the top-10 nationally in rushing offense. North Dakota State also resided in the top-10 in time of possession in three of Riley's five years coaching the offensive line, including leading the nation in 2015 (36:38).

Riley spent the 2011 and 2012 seasons as the offensive line coach at Sacramento State, and prior to his time on the west coast, he was the offensive line coach and run game coordinator at his alma mater, Omaha, from 2007-10.

A 2003 graduate of Nebraska-Omaha, Riley began his coaching career at Nebraska-Omaha as a graduate assistant from 2003-05. He left his alma mater to become the offensive line coach at Concordia-St. Paul in 2006.

Steve Shimko joined the Dallas Cowboys in 2024 as an offensive quality control coach, but with new head coach Brian Schottenheimer leading the way in 2025, Shimko was promoted to quarterbacks coach.

Shimko worked with Schottenheimer at several other stops in his career, including with the Seattle Seahawks from 2018-19 and at Georgia in 2015.

In Shimko's first season with Dallas, he helped develop the weekly offensive game plan and worked with the wide receivers. With Shimko in the room, four-time Pro Bowler CeeDee Lamb ranked near the top of every main receiving category, despite playing with a backup quarterback and battling through a shoulder injury for his final seven games of the season. Lamb tied for seventh in the NFL in receptions (101) and became just the third player in NFL history with 100-plus catches in three of his first five NFL seasons, joining Michael Thomas and Brandon Marshall. Third-year wide receiver Jalen Tolbert also had a breakout season, reeling in a team-high seven touchdown receptions.

Shimko, a former college quarterback at Rutgers, spent four years at Boston College prior to joining Dallas. As Boston College's offensive coordinator in 2023, Shimko led the nation's 13th-ranked rushing offense (199.5 rushing yards-per-game). Running back Thomas Castellanos finished with 1,289 rushing yards, good for 18th in the country. Under Shimko, Boston College averaged 24.8 points-per-game, its highest scoring average since 2019.

Before taking over play calling duties, Shimko coached quarterbacks in 2022 and tight ends from 2020-21.

In Shimko's first season with Boston College, he developed Hunter Long into a second-team All-American as he led all tight ends nationally in receptions (57) and ranked second in receiving yards (685). Long became the highest drafted Boston College tight end in school history after the Miami Dolphins selected him in the third round (81st overall) of the 2021 NFL Draft.

Prior to Boston College, Shimko spent two seasons (2018-19) as the assistant quarterbacks coach with the Seattle Seahawks, where he worked under Schottenheimer, who was Seattle's offensive coordinator. In 2024 Sorensen's unit finished fifth in pass defense (192.8 passing yards allowed-per-game), despite the defense being ravaged with injuries to key players such as Dre Greenlaw, Javon Hargrave and Talanoa Hufanga, all former Pro Bowlers. Sorensen oversaw linebacker Fred Warner (fourth selection) and Nick Bosa (fifth) named to the Pro Bowl.

Sorensen spent the 2023 season as the 49ers defensive passing game specialist/nickels coach, a year where San Francisco's secondary tied for first in the NFL with 22 interceptions. Overall, San Francisco finished in the top-10 in the league in total defense (303.9) and rushing defense (89.7). In 2016 while working with both special teams and defensive backs, Sorensen helped Tyler Lockett garner AP second-team All-Pro honors as a kick returner. Sorensen also helped Steven Hauschka become the franchise leader in field goals made (175) and the third-highest field goal percentage in NFL history (87.2%). Lockett was also named first-team All-Pro in 2015 as a rookie return specialist. Lockett became the second player in NFL history (Gale Sayers) to return a punt and kickoff for touchdowns and record five receiving touchdowns in a season.

Despite missing several games with injuries in 2024, Jake Ferguson again proved to be a trusted and dependable target for the Dallas offense, finishing second on the team with 59 receptions - the second consecutive season he ranked second in catches. He joined Jason Witten as the only two Cowboys tight ends with 50 receptions in two of his first three NFL seasons. Young tight ends Luke Schoonmaker and Brevyn Spann-Ford also took a step forward in their development, proving to be dependable as pass catchers, run blockers and special teams players. The tight end group claimed 18% of the club's receiving first downs in 2024, and as a whole, accounted for 24% of the team's catches.

Wells oversaw the development of second-year tight end Ferguson in 2023, who was in his first season as the starter. Ferguson notched 71 receptions for 761 yards and five touchdowns to earn his first Pro Bowl nod, and his 761 receiving yards ranked eighth among NFL tight ends. He became the third tight end in franchise history to record at least 70 receptions and 700 receiving yards in a season, joining Witten and Dalton Schultz. Under Wells, Ferguson tallied 90 career receptions and 935 receiving yards, both the second-most by a Cowboys tight in the first two seasons of a career, trailing only Witten.

During the 2022 season, Wells saw diverse production from his tight end group. Schultz remained the group's leader, as he collected 57 receptions (second on the team) for 577 yards (second) and five touchdowns (second). Behind him, Wells received more production from two rookie tight ends - fourth round selection Ferguson (19 receptions for 174 yards and two touchdowns) and undrafted free agent Peyton Hendershot (11 receptions for 103 yards and two scores) - as they became the third rookie tight end duo in NFL history to record multiple receiving touchdowns in their first season.

The tight end group was led again by Schultz in 2021, and under Wells' leadership, he recorded his best season with 78 catches for 808 yards and eight touchdowns - becoming the second Cowboys tight end to record 70 catches in a season (Witten, nine times).

In 2020 Wells helped Schultz achieve a breakout season after starting tight end Blake Jarwin suffered a season-ending knee injury in Week 1. Despite the loss of Jarwin, Wells shaped Schultz into one of the top tight ends in the NFC during 2020, as Schultz recorded 615 receiving yards and four touchdowns on 64 catches.

Prior to Dallas, Wells spent eight seasons in different roles with the N.Y. Giants. From 2018-19 Wells worked with a young and talented tight end in Evan Engram, who caught 88 passes and six touchdowns over two seasons, despite missing 13 games due to injury. Before assuming his position as tight ends coach, Wells spent five seasons as the team's assistant offensive line coach, first under Pat Flaherty and then Mike Solari. In 2017 Wells helped tutor a line that was constantly in transition. The Giants used 10 different starting combinations, their highest single-season total since the 1970 merger.

New York scored 420 points in 2015, the fifth-highest total in franchise history, and its 5,956 net yards were the third-highest total in team history. With the line providing consistent protection, Eli Manning set a single-season franchise record with 387 completions, and his 4,432 yards and 35 touchdown passes were both the second-highest totals in Giants history.

Wells joined the Giants in 2012 as an offensive quality control coach. He also helped coach the wide receivers that season. In 2012 the Giants scored 429 points, the second-highest total in franchise history.

WILL McCLAY

Vice President Player Personnel

Will McClay, in his 24th season with the Cowboys Personnel Department, was named the club's Vice President of Player Personnel in 2017. McClay is instrumental in overseeing the club's NFL Draft process and plays a key role in free agent and trade acquisitions.

McClay began to oversee the Cowboys draft process in 2014, and since that time the team has selected 15 players that have gone on to make at least one Pro Bowl - the most in the NFL over that span - including foundational pieces in Zack Martin (nine Pro Bowls), CeeDee Lamb (four), Micah Parsons (four), Dak Prescott (three) and Tyler Smith (two). Under his guidance, Dallas has also been able to mine the late rounds of the draft to find hidden gems, including fifth round pick DaRon Bland, who earned first-team All-Pro and a Pro Bowl nod after setting the NFL record with five pick-sixes in 2023, and undrafted kicker Brandon Aubrey, who is the first kicker in NFL history to reach the Pro Bowl in each of his first two seasons and set the NFL record for most 50-yard makes in a season with 14.

The Cowboys continued to build up the trenches throughout the 2024 Draft, with their first three selections all going towards offensive and defensive line. Tyler Guyton was drafted in the first round to help supplant longtime stalwart Tyron Smith at left tackle, and Guyton started 11-of-15 games in his rookie campaign. Dallas added another rookie contributor along the offensive front in the third round with Cooper Beebe, who started 16 games at center to make Dallas one-of-four teams to have multiple rookies start at least 10 games on the offensive line in 2024. The Cowboys added contributors on the defensive side of the ball in Marshawn Kneeland, Marist Lifau and Caelen Carson, all of whom played significant roles as rookies and provide a solid foundation for the future.

With an emphasis on physicality entering the 2023 Draft, Dallas selected defensive tackle Mazi Smith as its first-of-seven players in the class. Smith and second round tight end Luke Schoonmaker played in all 17 games as rookies, both contributing in the run game on both sides of the ball. Smith finished with 15 tackles, two tackles for loss and a sack in his first year, and Schoonmaker added eight catches with two touchdowns - becoming the fifth Cowboy to score a touchdown on his first career catch. Injuries and veteran additions prevented the later round selections from making an immediate impact, with the five remaining picks of the class playing a combined 14 games in 2023, with much larger roles expected in the future.

The 2022 draft was largely about rebuilding the trenches on offense and defense, with six-of-nine draft picks coming on the offensive line or front seven of the defense. Offensive lineman Tyler Smith headlined the draft class, starting all 17 games in his rookie season - 16 at left tackle and one at left guard - to become the first Cowboys rookie to start at left tackle in a season-opener. The class was also highlighted by second round pick Sam Williams, who played in 15 games and recorded 4.0 sacks with a team-leading seven tackles for loss, and fifth-round pick DaRon Bland, who started eight-of-17 games and led the team with five interceptions - the first rookie to lead the Cowboys in picks since Derek Ross and Roy

Williams in 2002 - while playing both nickel and outside corner. Overall, the 2022 draft class generated 89 games played with 39 starts and 4,902 total snaps, the sixth-most snaps among rookies in the NFL.

McClay was tasked with rebuilding the defensive side of the ball in 2021, working with Defensive Coordinator Dan Quinn to add players that fit an updated vision of the Cowboys defense. Dallas lost eight players to other teams in free agency but also added eight players - the most signings by the Cowboys in any year of free agency since its inception in 1994 - including five defensive players. Dallas also saw immediate dividends from its draft class, with Micah Parsons setting a franchise rookie record with 13.0 sacks, earning Defensive Rookie of the Year and first-team All-Pro honors in the process. Dallas' rookie draft picks played in a total of 112 games with 32 starts in 2021.

Entering the 2021 NFL Draft, McClay and the Cowboys undertook a unique challenge, building a roster while balancing a record-setting contract for Prescott, which led to the Cowboys selecting 11 players - second-most since the NFL moved to a seven round draft. The 11 selections also included eight defensive players, and all of the Cowboys first six selections were on defense - the first time that occurred in team history. The draft class, headlined by Parsons, consisted of 10 Power Five players and three Senior Bowl participants.

The Cowboys entered unfamiliar territory in 2020, undergoing a regime change at head coach for the first time since 2010, as Dallas hired Mike McCarthy as the ninth head coach in team history. As a result, Dallas saw a significant amount of change on both the coaching staff and player roster, with six starters defecting to other teams in free agency and the retirement of Travis Frederick. Under normal circumstances, the task of upgrading the roster in an offseason with such change would be difficult, but in 2020, the threat of COVID-19 halted all free agent visits and altered the NFL Draft evaluation period. McClay and the front office tackled the task head on, signing free agents who had combined to make 631 starts and earn 14 Pro Bowls.

In the 2020 Draft, Dallas was patient and calculating, jumping on the opportunity to add perhaps the top wide receiver prospect in CeeDee Lamb when he unexpectedly fell to the Cowboys at pick 17. The Cowboys then bolstered their defense, nabbing an athletic and ascending cornerback from Alabama in Trevon Diggs in Round 2.

In his earlier role as director of football research (2011-13), McClay evaluated players on NFL rosters and in other leagues, scouting Dallas' opponents using advanced scouting and analytic methods and overseeing the scouting department's technology tools.

McClay was a pro scout (2002-08), then pro scouting coordinator (2009-10), and he was responsible for sifting through free agents and locating some of the team's most notable signings before and during the season.

McClay originally came to Dallas as the defensive coordinator for the Dallas Desperados (2002-03) of the Arena Football League. He was the club's head coach for five seasons (2004-08), helping lead them to a league-best 15-1 record and consecutive Eastern Division Championships (2007-08). In his five seasons as head coach, he led the Desperados to a 54-24-1 record and was named AFL Coach of the Year in 2006.

Before joining the Cowboys and Desperados, McClay was the assistant director of pro scouting for the Jacksonville Jaguars. In his only season (2001) with the Jaguars, he scouted NFL teams in the preseason and did advance scouting work during the season. Before joining Jacksonville, he was the player personnel director of the XFL's Orlando Rage, as well as a consultant and scout, in the spring of 2001.

Prior to moving into the personnel side of professional football, McClay spent 11 seasons in the AFL as a player and coach. He served as defensive coordinator and director of player personnel for the Grand Rapids Rampage in 1998. He added the title of assistant head coach in 1999, when the Rampage improved to an 8-6 record after going 3-11 the previous season. In 1997 he was the defensive coordinator and director of player personnel for the Anaheim Piranhas after serving as the defensive coordinator for the Milwaukee Mustangs in 1995 and the Florida Bobcats in 1996.

McClay was the secondary and special teams coach of the Detroit Drive in 1993, helping the team reach the ArenaBowl. From 1989-92 he was a wide receiver/defensive back for the Drive, helping lead them to three ArenaBowl titles in four appearances.

McClay was a four-year letterman and captain as a defensive back at Rice University (1985-88), starting every game of his collegiate career. He graduated in 1990 with a degree in political science. McClay has one son, Gabriel.

PRO: In the search for a long-term kicker, the Dallas Cowboys signed Brandon Aubrey prior to training camp in 2023. Aubrey spent two seasons (2022-23) kicking for the Birmingham Stallions in the USFL and spent his collegiate athletic career as a soccer player at Notre Dame. Aubrey has wasted no time establishing himself as one of the premier kickers in the league, as he is the only kicker in NFL history to earn Pro Bowl selections in each of his first two seasons. He also has the most field goals made (76) and points scored (307) in a player's first two seasons in NFL history. During his first NFL season, Aubrey put together one of the most productive seasons by any first-year kicker in NFL history. He led the league in field goals made (36) and ranked third in field goal percentage (94.7). Aubrey made his first 35 field goal attempts in 2023, an NFL record for field goals made without a miss to start a career. Aubrey continued to rewrite the record books in 2024, setting the NFL record for most field goals from 50-plus yards in a season (14). He also converted a franchise record 40 field goals in 2024 and made the second longest field goal in NFL history, a 65-yard boot against Baltimore in Week 3.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

7/6/23: Signed with Dallas as a free agent.

2024 (Dallas):

- Made field goals from 65 yards (vs. Baltimore, 9/22) and 60 yards (at N.Y. Giants, 9/26), becoming the second player in NFL history to make multiple field goals from 60-plus yards in the same season, joining former Cowboy Brett Maher. He is the fourth kicker in NFL history with three made field goals of at least 60 yards in a career.

- Opened the season at Cleveland (9/8) with four successful field goals (57, 40, 50, 46). His 57-yard field goal was the longest made field goal in a season opener in franchise history.
- Connected on two field goals (65, 51) against Baltimore (9/22). His 65-yard field goal in the first quarter was the longest made field goal in franchise history and the second-longest make in NFL history behind Justin Tucker (66 yards).

- Made a 53-yard field goal against Houston (11/18), his 10th field goal of the season from at least 50 yards, becoming the first kicker in NFL history to make 10 field goals from 50-plus yards in consecutive seasons.
- Was successful on three-of-four field goal attempts at Carolina (12/15), with his lone miss a 70-yard attempt at the end of the first half.
- Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week against Tampa Bay (12/22) after tying a season-high four field goals made from 58, 49, 58 and 53 yards.
- Tallied four field goals in the season finale against Washington (1/5/25), becoming the fifth kicker in NFL history to reach 40 field goals made in a single season (David Akers - 44, 2011; Chris Boswell - 41, 2024; Daniel Carlson - 40, 2021; Neil Rackers - 40, 2005). Also became the first kicker in NFL history to make at least 35 field goals in each of his first two seasons.

- Established single-season franchise records for points scored by any player (157), field goals made (36) and field goals made from 50-plus yards (10).

- Earned first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors, becoming the fifth Cowboys kicker to earn a Pro Bowl nod and the third Cowboys specialist (second kicker) to do it in his first season.
- Made his NFL debut in the season opener at the N.Y. Giants (9/10), connecting on both his field goal attempts (21,38) and going four-of-five on PATs.
- Successful on all five (season-high) of his field goal attempts (35, 21, 55, 26, 30) and his lone PAT against the N.Y. Jets (9/17), becoming the fourth Cowboys rookie kicker to make at least five field goals in a game (Dan Bailey, Roger Ruzek, Cunningham).
- Nailed both of his field goals (58, 27) and five extra points against the LA Rams (10/29). Tied Coons for the most field goals made without a miss to start an NFL career (18-for-18), breaking the record the following week with a 51-yard boot at Philadelphia (11/5).
- Made all four of his field goal attempts, including makes from 60 (career-long), 59, 45 and 50 yards against Philadelphia (12/10). Became the first player in NFL history to make two field goals of 59 yards-or-longer in the same game, and his 60-yarder was the first 60-plus yard field goal made in the first quarter in league history.
- Extended his NFL record of field goals made without a miss to start a career to 33 at Miami (12/24). With eight points in the game, brought his 2023 point total to an NFL-high 141, passing Maher (137 in 2022) for the most kicking points in a season in Cowboys history.

Postseason: 2024-0/0; Career-3/3

PRO: The Dallas Cowboys selected DaRon Bland in the fifth round (167th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft. Bland exceeded all expectations in his first pro season, playing significant time at both the nickel and boundary corner positions to the tune of eight starts in 17 games played with 56 tackles, a tackle for loss, seven pass breakups and a team-leading five interceptions. Bland's five interceptions were the most by a Cowboys rookie since Derek Ross and Roy Williams each had five in 2002. Bland polished off a historic second pro season in 2023 where he led the NFL with a career-best nine interceptions, marking the second time in the last three years that a Cowboy led the NFL in interceptions (Trevon Diggs, 11 in 2021). Additionally, he returned five interceptions for touchdowns to set an NFL record for the most pick-sixes in a season, and he set career-highs in tackles (72 - tied for fourth on the defense), tackles for loss (three) and pass breakups (15 - tops on the defense) while starting a career-high 15-of-17 games played. In 2024 Bland suffered a foot injury at the conclusion of training camp that sideline him for the first 10 games. He returned for the final seven contests and tallied 44 tackles, five pass breakups, one forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Bland will continue to be a staple of the Cowboys secondary in 2025 as he enters the last year of his rookie contract.

PRO: The Dallas Cowboys bolstered their defensive backfield when they selected Trevon Diggs - one of the top cornerbacks and one of the best all-around athletes - in the second round (51st overall) of the 2020 NFL Draft. Diggs, who started his collegiate career as a receiver at Alabama, made the switch to defense as a sophomore and continued to improve each season. As a rookie in Dallas, Diggs started 11 of the 12 games he played, missing four in the middle of the season with a broken foot. Diggs finished his rookie season as the first Cowboys rookie to lead the team outright in interceptions (three) since Terence Newman in 2003, and the first rookie to lead the team in breakups (14). Diggs had a breakout year in his second season, leading the NFL and tying a franchise record with 11 interceptions - returning two for touchdowns - making him the first Cowboy to lead the NFL in picks since Everson Walls in 1981. Diggs was named a Pro Bowl starter and earned first-team All-Pro honors for his efforts. Diggs grew into a complete cover corner as a third-year player, often shadowing the opponent's best receiver while recording three interceptions and 14 pass breakups en route to his second straight Pro Bowl in 2022. On the eve of training camp in 2023, Diggs signed a five-year extension that keeps him in Dallas through 2028 and rewarded his historic performance through his first three NFL seasons. He was off to another hot start through the first few weeks of 2023 before suffering a knee injury during practice prior to Week 3, forcing him to miss the remainder of his fourth season. After an offseason of physical rehab, Diggs returned to the starting lineup for the 2024 season opener and played 11 games before suffering a knee injury that sidelined him for the final six games. Diggs will once again work to return to the field in 2025 and return to his All-Pro form.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

- Tied Walls (1981) for Dallas' single-season franchise record for interceptions, picking off his 11th pass of the season to go with two tackles and two breakups in the blowout win over Washington (12/26). The theft came on Washington's first offensive play of the game.
- Was Inactive/Illness for the season finale at Philadelphia (1/8/22), then notched four tackles in his playoff debut in the Wild Card game against San Francisco (1/16/22).

- Started 11 of the 12 games he played (missing four mid-season with a broken foot), becoming the first Cowboys rookie to lead the team outright in interceptions (three) since Terence Newman in 2003, the first rookie to lead the team in breakups (14) since Byron Jones in 2015 and the first to lead in both categories since 1984 when Dallas started tracking breakups. PRO: The Dallas Cowboys chose Wisconsin tight end Jake Ferguson in the fourth round (129th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft. The addition of Ferguson gave Dallas an upper hand in the run game in 2022, as the Cowboys ranked second in the league in rush yards with multiple tight ends on the field (962). Ferguson also recorded 19 catches in his rookie campaign, the fourth-most catches by a rookie tight end in Cowboys history. With the departure of Dalton Schultz in the 2023 offseason, Ferguson embraced his role as the top tight end, setting career highs across the board with 71 receptions for 761 yards and five touchdowns as he was selected to his first Pro Bowl as an alternate for George Kittle. In 2024 Ferguson battled through injuries and started all 14 games he played, proving to be a consistent weapon in the Cowboys offense. During his three years with Dallas, Ferguson has provided an explosive after-the-catch threat that the Cowboys had been missing from the tight end position, and his rapport with Dak Prescott will be a key factor in 2025 as one of the league's top offense looks to push to further heights under Brian Schottenheimer.

PRO: The Dallas Cowboys acquired C.J. Goodwin off the Cincinnati Bengals practice squad following Week 5 of the 2018 season to add depth to the Cowboys secondary and special teams. Since his arrival in Dallas, Goodwin has played in 74 games and has developed into one of the league's top special teams coverage men. From 2019-21, he recorded 10 special teams tackles each year, becoming the first player in franchise history to lead the team in special teams tackles three consecutive years (since special teams tackles were tracked beginning in 1988). After a shoulder/pec injury ended his 2023 season prematurely, Goodwin returned in 2024 in prime form with a career-best 12 special teams tackles. In the 2025 offseason, Dallas signed Goodwin to a one-year extension, keeping the special teams ace in Dallas for at least one more season.

PRO: The Dallas Cowboys added more competition for the backup quarterback spot when they signed Will Grier to their practice squad in the middle of the 2024 season. Grier, a former Heisman Trophy Finalist at West Virginia, is in his second stop with Dallas after spending two seasons (2021-22) with the Cowboys as the team's No. 3 quarterback. Grier, originally a third round draft pick by Carolina, started two games for the Panthers in his rookie season before not seeing any action in 2020. As a veteran signal caller who is familiar with Dallas' offensive personnel, Grier looks to compete for the lead backup spot to Prescott.

In 2024 he started seven games - six at guard and one at center - and in 2025 Hoffman will look to seize a starting job on the offensive line following the departure of nine-time Pro Bowler Zack Martin.

PRO: The Dallas Cowboys improved their secondary when they signed Malik Hooker during the first week of training camp in 2021. Hooker, the former 15th overall pick from the 2017 NFL Draft, arrived in Dallas after spending the first four years of his career with the Indianapolis Colts. His first four seasons did not come without struggle, as he missed 14 games in 2020 with a torn Achilles and more than half of his rookie season with a torn ACL and MCL. In making his return from the torn Achilles in 2020, Hooker played in 15 games with three starts in his first season in Dallas, and he notched 44 tackles, one stop for a loss, one interception and two breakups. Hooker signed a two-year contract extension with Dallas at the beginning of free agency in 2022 and recorded 67 tackles, three tackles for loss, three breakups, three interceptions and recovered a fumble for a 38-yard touchdown. Hooker, a mainstay in the Cowboys secondary, again extended his contract in Dallas during training camp in 2023, this time locking him in through the 2026 season. A familiar face will rejoin Hooker in Dallas in 2025, as Defensive Coordinator Matt Eberflus was Hooker's defensive play caller in Indianapolis from 2018-20.

PRO: Micah Parsons was regarded as one of the top overall athletes in the 2021 NFL Draft, and the Dallas Cowboys landed the former Big Ten Linebacker of the Year when they traded out of the 10th spot - dropping to 12 and adding an extra third round pick to select him. The selection of Parsons did not disappoint, as the versatile all-around talent quickly emerged as one of the league's premier pass rushers. Along with being a four-time Pro Bowler, Parsons has recorded at least 12.0 sacks in each of his four NFL seasons, joining Hall of Famer Reggie White as the only two players in NFL history with 12.0-or-more sacks in each of their first four seasons. Additionally, Parsons has 52.5 career sacks, the fifth-most sacks through a player's first four seasons in NFL history. He also has 18 career multi-sack games, tied for the second-most in an NFL player's first four seasons, trailing only White (23 games).

NFL: 4th Year • Cowboys: 1st Year
Games/Starts: 2024-14/12; Career-48/40
Postseason: 2024-1/1; Career-2/2

PRO: Two weeks after the 2025 NFL Draft, the Dallas Cowboys added a prolific wide receiver to their offense when they sent draft compensation to the Pittsburgh Steelers in exchange for George Pickens. Pickens is entering the fourth and final year of his rookie contract in 2025. In his first three seasons with Pittsburgh, Pickens was known around the league as an explosive deep threat, as he is the only player in the NFL who averaged at least 16 yards-per-reception and had at least 2,000 receiving yards since 2022. Pickens also has the highest yard-per-catch average (16.3) and tied for the third-most 25-plus yard receptions (41) over the last three seasons, trailing only Justin Jefferson and A.J. Brown. As Pickens heads into 2025 alongside All-Pro receiver CeeDee Lamb, the Cowboys receiving corps presents a formidable duo that has the second-most receiving yards (7,143) by a current NFL wide receiver duo since 2022, behind only Tyreek Hill and Jaylen Waddle with the Miami Dolphins (7,582).

PRO: With their eyes toward the future, the Dallas Cowboys picked Dak Prescott out of Mississippi State with the team's second selection in the fourth round (135th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft. Prescott became the first quarterback drafted by the Cowboys since Stephen McGee in 2009 and only the fifth in the common draft era since Jerry Jones bought the team in 1989. Prescott was slotted as Dallas' third quarterback when 2016 training camp opened, but throughout training camp, injuries to Kellen Moore (leg) and Tony Romo (back) thrusted Prescott into the starting role for the 2016 season. After losing the season-opener, Prescott led the Cowboys on an 11-game win streak to a franchise-tying 13-3 record and the NFC East title. He set club rookie records with 3,667 passing yards, 23 touchdowns and four interceptions for an NFL rookie record 104.9 passer rating while earning AP Offensive Rookie of the Year honors. Prescott has continued to excel since his rookie season, as his 76 wins as the Cowboys starting quarterback are the fourth-most by any quarterback since he was drafted in 2016. In the franchise's all-time passing records, Prescott enters 2025 ranking first in completion percentage (66.8%), second in passing touchdowns (213) and third in passing yards (31,437). Prescott, who is entering his 10th year as the Dallas Cowboys starting quarterback, is no stranger to the bright lights. He has a 27-12 record in primetime games, the highest winning percentage among quarterbacks in primetime in Cowboys history. Prescott also has an impressive 33-8 record against NFC East opponents, the second-most divisional wins among quarterbacks since 2016. As much success as he has had on the field, Prescott has excelled in his contributions to the community off the field. At NFL Honors in 2022, Prescott was awarded the most prestigious award in the league when he received the Walter Payton Man of the Year trophy for his outstanding community service efforts off the field, as well as excellence on the field. On the day of the 2024 season opener at Cleveland, Prescott inked a four-year contract extension that will keep a star on his helmet through 2028.

Tulsa • DI-'22 (24th overall)
NFL: 4th Year • Cowboys: 4th Year
Games/Starts: 2024-16/16; Career-47/47
Postseason: 2024-0/0; Career-3/3

PRO: The Dallas Cowboys addressed an immediate need while also looking to the future when they drafted Tyler Smith in the first round (24th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft. He prepped down the road from the Cowboys facility at North Crowley High School outside of Fort Worth before his three-year collegiate career at Tulsa. In his rookie campaign, Smith was called to duty at left tackle after incumbent starter Tyron Smith went down with an injury at the end of training camp. Smith did not miss a beat, starting all 17 games of his rookie year - 16 at left tackle and one at left guard - and solidified the left side of the Cowboys offensive line. Smith developed into a prominent force on the offensive line in Year Two, earning his first Pro Bowl nod and garnering second-team All-Pro honors with 14 starts at left guard for the top offense in terms of points-per-game (29.9). In 2024 Smith earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl nod at left guard, becoming one-of-four offensive linemen in Cowboys history to be named to multiple Pro Bowls in his first three seasons, joining Zack Martin (three), Travis Frederick (two) and Larry Allen (two).

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/28/22: Drafted in the first round (24th overall) by Dallas.

2024:

- Missed his only game of the season with an ankle injury at Washington (11/24).
- At Pittsburgh (10/6), started at left guard before shifting to left tackle when Tyler Guyton left the game with an injury in the second quarter. Blocked for an offense that recorded a season-high 445 yards.

2023:

- Started 14 games at left guard - missing three games with injuries - and earned his first Pro Bowl nod and second-team All-Pro honors.
- Missed the first two games of the season with a nagging hamstring injury, then returned to start at left guard at Arizona (9/24) and blocked for an offense that accumulated 416 total yards and a season-high 185 rushing yards. The offense also notched 26 first downs, including a season-best 12 rushing first downs that tied the most rushing first downs in a game since Head Coach Mike McCarthy arrived in 2020 - against Carolina (10/3/21) and at Minnesota (11/20/22).
- Provided blocking for 43 points and 285 passing yards as part of 387 yards and 24 first downs against the LA Rams (10/29). Behind the line's protection, Dak Prescott threw for 304 yards and a season-high tying four touchdowns.
- In a historic performance, the offense produced a season-high 640 yards behind the guidance of the offensive line against the N.Y. Giants (11/12), the second-most yards in a single-game in franchise history. - Part of an offense that rolled up 41 points, 411 yards and 33 first downs - tied for the second most in a game in franchise history - against Seattle (11/30).
- Left in the second half of the game against Detroit (12/30) with a foot injury and did not return, missing the next week at Washington (1/7/24) with the injury.
- Returned and blocked for an offense that rolled up 510 yards in the Wild Card Game against Green Bay (1/14/24) - second-highest number in a single game in franchise postseason history - and 37 first downs (first in postseason team history). Provided protection for Prescott to throw for a team postseason record 403 yards and three touchdowns (tied for fourth).

2022:

- Started all 17 games as a rookie - 16 at left tackle and one at left guard - and both postseason contests.
- Made his NFL debut and first career start in the season opener against Tampa Bay (9/11), becoming the first rookie in team history to start a season opener at left tackle - 13th rookie offensive lineman overall in team history.
- Part of an offensive line that allowed only one sack of Cooper Rush against Cincinnati (9/18), making his second career start in place of Prescott.
- Assisted the offense in scoring touchdowns on each of its first four possessions against Chicago (10/30), the first time a Cowboys team opened the game with four straight touchdowns since 2014 against Indianapolis (12/21). The offense also converted nine-of-11 third down chances, an 81.8% conversion rate that served as the highest percentage by a Cowboys team within the last 40 seasons.
- The Dallas offense registered season-highs in net yards (458) and time of possession (37:24) and scored a touchdown or field goal on its first seven drives - the first time in team history that has occurred (since 1978 when the NFL expanded to a 16-game schedule) - at Minnesota (11/20).

Postseason: 2024-0/0; Career-2/1

PRO: After signing with Dallas as an undrafted free agent following the 2020 NFL Draft, Terence Steele could have been considered a long shot to make the roster, but with a rash of injuries to the offensive line through training camp and the 2020 season, the Cibolo, Texas, native not only earned a roster spot, but he also took on the starting right tackle job in place of La'el Collins (hip). Steele gained valuable NFL experience as a rookie, starting 14-of-16 games he played. His experience as a rookie, as well as a focused offseason conditioning program, paid dividends for Steele in his second season as he started 13-of-16 games he played - seeing time at both tackle spots in 2021. With the departure of Collins, Steele took the reigns of the right tackle spot in 2022 and started 13 games on the right side of the line before a knee injury prematurely ended his breakout campaign, and he went to the Reserve/Injured list for the remainder of the season. After spending the offseason rehabbing, Steele signed a five-year extension prior to the 2023 regular season, keeping him in Dallas as a fixture on the right side of the offensive line for the long haul. Steele returned to start all 17 games in both the 2023 and 2024 seasons, and he has played the second-most snaps (2,364) among all NFL offensive linemen over the last two seasons, trailing only Detroit's Penei Sewell (2,426).

- In totaling 567 yards at New England (10/17), the Cowboys compiled the most passing yards (445) against a Bill Belichick-coached team.
- Started at left tackle in place of Tyron Smith (ankle) against Denver (11/7) and against Atlanta (11/14).

Monday Night Football (50-37; 1-0 postseason)

The Cowboys hold a 50-37 regular season Monday Night Football record, and the club is 1-0 in the postseason. Dallas will be making its 88th and 89th regular season appearances on MNF in 2025 against the Arizona Cardinals on Nov. 3 and at the Las Vegas Raiders on Nov. 17. The majority of the Cowboys MNF games were played on ABC Monday Night Football from 1970-2005 when they appeared on the prime time telecast 67 times, posting a 39-28 record including a 17-11 record at home and a 23-17 mark on the road.

Only Miami, with 89 games, has appeared on MNF more times than Dallas. The 50 regular season MNF wins by the Cowboys are third in league history behind Pittsburgh (54) and San Francisco (52). ESPN landed the telecast in 2006, and since then, the Cowboys have appeared 21 times on MNF, including postseason, with a 12-9 record. The week after playing on MNF, the Cowboys own a regular season record of 36-37 - 0-1 postseason - (five times the Cowboys final game of the season was on a Monday night and eight times they followed with a bye). 8 ★ TROY AIKMAN ★
Quarterback, 1989-2000
INDUCTED – 2006

In 12 NFL seasons, Troy Aikman became one of the game's great quarterbacks. As just the third player in NFL history to lead a team to three Super Bowl victories, Aikman rewrote virtually every passing record in Cowboys history. He closed his career with 94 regular season wins, including 90 in the decade of the 1990s – making him the winningest starting quarterback of any decade in NFL history to that point (Joe Montana held the record with 86 wins in the 1980s).

Along with that mark, Aikman held or was tied for 47 Dallas passing records, including the club's career records for attempts (4,715), completions (2,898), passing yards (32,942), touchdowns (165) and completion percentage (61.5% – third best in NFL history at the time of his retirement). He also posted a then club-high 13 regular season 300-yard passing games during his career.

Along the way to these marks, Aikman guided Dallas from the cellar of 1-15 in 1989 to six NFC East titles (1992-96 and 1998), four NFC Championship Games (1992-95) and three Super Bowl titles (XXVII, XXVIII and XXX). He was one of the game's most accurate passers, completing at least 60 percent of his passes in 98-of-165 career games. In the postseason, he reached the 60% completion mark in 12-of-16 games. He completed 70 percent or more of his passes 42 times in his career, with Dallas posting a 37-5 record in those games, and he produced the top six single-season completion percentages in club history.

With his passing accuracy, Aikman was able to establish a club-record with a career interception rate of 2.99% (now held by Dak Prescott, 1.9%). Although not known for his fleet feet, Aikman successfully ran for a first down 49-of-72 times on third or fourth down during career. That ability to avoid the sack also allowed him to post the highest career pass attempts per sack ratio (19.2) in team history. Despite winning just one of his first 15 NFL starts, Aikman went on to start a club-record 180 games (165 regular season) at quarterback and post a 105-75 (.583) record, which includes an impeccable 11-4 mark in the postseason – 3-0 in the Super Bowl.

For his career, Aikman led the Cowboys from behind 16 times in the fourth quarter, including six times in the final 2:00. Another six times, he led the team to wins after the score was tied in the fourth quarter. Five of his game-winning drives came in overtime.

In the postseason Aikman truly shined. His four 300-yard passing days were the third best total in NFL history, and he holds the club records for postseason pass attempts (502), completions (320) and yards (3,849). In addition, Aikman's 23 career postseason passing touchdowns was just one shy of Staubach's club record of 24.

The first overall choice in the 1989 draft out of UCLA, Aikman completed 64.8 percent of his passes for 5,298 yards and 41 touchdowns while throwing only 17 interceptions in two seasons as the starter. He finished his career as the third rated passer in NCAA history. The All-America led the Bruins to a 20-4 record, including wins in the 1987 Aloha Bowl and the 1989 Cotton Bowl. He transferred to UCLA - where he received his degree in sociology in June, 2009 - after two seasons at Oklahoma (1984-85).

Aikman was born Nov. 21, 1966 in West Covina, Cali.

AIKMAN'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 6-Time Pro Bowl selection
- ★ MVP of Super Bowl XXVII
- ★ Super Bowl XXVII, XXVIII and XXX titles
- ★ 3 NFC Titles
- ★ 6 NFC East Titles
- ★ 1997 NFL Man of the Year

73 ★ LARRY ALLEN ★
Guard/Tackle, 1994-2005
INDUCTED – 2013

As a member of the NFL's All-Decade team for the 1990s and 2000s, Larry Allen was widely recognized as one of the NFL's premier offensive linemen, and he established himself as one of the most decorated offensive players in Dallas Cowboys and NFL history.

In 14 NFL seasons since being drafted in the second round out of Sonoma State, Allen was named to more Pro Bowls (10) than any other offensive lineman in Cowboys history. He also earned another Pro Bowl berth in 2006 while finishing his career with the San Francisco 49ers, bringing his Pro Bowl total to 11 selections. He was also named All-Pro seven times, six times at guard (1995-97, 1999-01) and once at tackle (1998). With his Pro Bowl selection at tackle in 1998, he became just the third player in league history to be selected to the Pro Bowl at more than one offensive line position during his career, joining Bruce Matthews (guard/center) and Chris Hinton (guard/tackle).

An ankle injury in the second week of the 2002 season limited Allen to five games and snapped his seven-year string of trips to the Pro Bowl, the fourth-longest streak in club history and the standard for Pro Bowl selections by a Dallas offensive lineman at that time. Allen fully recovered from his injury and earned his eighth Pro Bowl selection in 2003, tying Emmitt Smith as the only Dallas offensive player to be selected to eight Pro Bowls. In 2004 he earned his ninth trip to Hawaii, then made his 10th and final appearence in the annual all-star game as a Cowboy in 2005. Allen is tied with Mel Renfro for the second-most Pro Bowl selections by a Cowboy, trailing Bob Lilly (11) and Jason Witten (11).

He played all but one position along the offensive line in his 12 seasons in Dallas, moving between right tackle (1994), right guard (1995-97), left tackle (1997-98) and left guard (1999-03). During his illustrious career in Dallas, Allen was a member of an offensive unit that posted the four lowest sacks allowed totals in club history with 18 in 1995, 19 in 1996 and 1998, and 20 in 1994. He also played a very important part in Smith's race toward the all-time NFL rushing mark, having blocked for eight of Smith's 11 1,000-yard rushing seasons. Smith gained 11,463 of his 17,162 career yards with Dallas after Allen joined the Cowboys in 1994 and was a pivotal member of the Super Bowl XXX Champion team in 1995.

With a career-best bench press of 700 pounds and a squat lift of 900 pounds, Allen is also considered to be the strongest man to ever play professional football. After missing most of 2002 with a sprained left ankle that required surgery to remove bone spurs, Allen went on to start 48 straight games before signing and playing for two seasons (2006-07) with San Francisco where he started the final 27 games of his career. Allen started 197-of-203 career games played.

Allen was born Nov. 27, 1971 in Los Angeles, Cali., and died on June 2, 2024.

ALLEN'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 11-time Pro Bowl selection
- ★ 7-time All Pro
- ★ Super Bowl XXX title
- ★ 2 NFC Championships
- ★ 4 Division Titles
- ★ 1990s and 2000s member of NFL's All-Decade Teams
- ★ Blocked for eight of Emmitt Smith's 11 1,000-yard seasons

Larry Allen became the second Cowboys offensive lineman selected to both the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the Ring of Honor at AT&T Stadium. He joined Rayfield Wright as the only two.

★ GIL BRANDT ★
Vice President of Player Personnel, 1960-88
INDUCTED – 2019

From the inception of the Dallas Cowboys in 1960, to 13 division titles, two Super Bowl titles and 20 consecutive winning seasons, Gil Brandt was behind the scenes as the man responsible for finding the next Cowboys cornerstone player. Throughout his tenure with the Dallas Cowboys, Brandt oversaw the acquisition of 15 of the 19 players who are currently in the Ring of Honor - including two undrafted free agents in Cliff Harris and Drew Pearson, a pair of seventh round selections in Rayfield Wright and Bob Hayes, and a 10th round draft choice by the name of Roger Staubach. From that group, nine men also earned induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

In 30 years with the Cowboys, Brandt distinguished himself at the top of his profession - as an innovator - and someone who set the standard for excellence in the area of player personnel. Whether it be introducing computers and technology into the player evaluation process, negotiating contracts, or inviting 80 undrafted rookie free agents to training camp every year, Brandt brought new and creative philosophies to player acquisition that were copied by many teams in the NFL - and are still being used today.

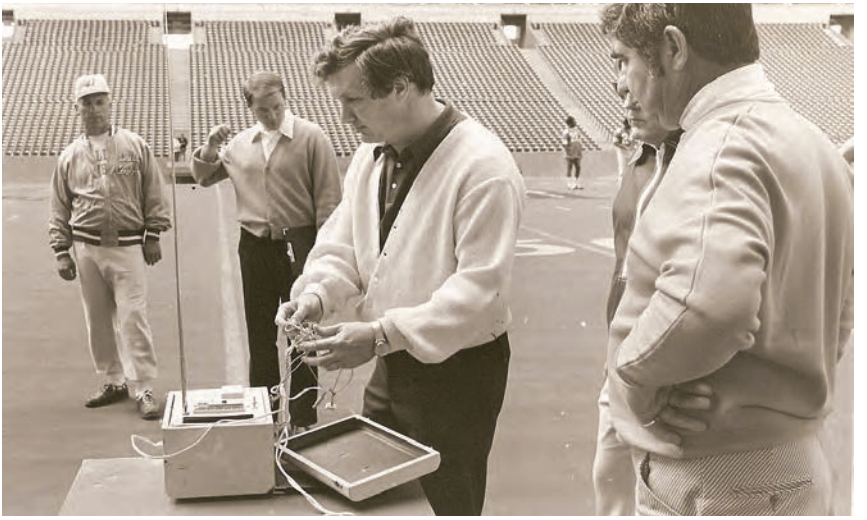
Brandt was the first person to introduce computers to scouting. He worked with IBM to build a scoring system that assigned a numerical value to players, giving the Cowboys a more efficient way of evaluating talent. These numerical grades were then stored in punch cards and were input into the IBM mainframe so the Cowboys could average the scores of many scouting reports for a particular player and then assign players ranks. This system helped identify high-value players in the lower rounds of the NFL Draft, such as running back Herschel Walker in the fifth round of the 1985 draft and defensive tackle Chad Hennings in the 11th round of the 1988 draft. Brandt also mined NFL talent from unusual places, such as the basketball court or the track and field complex, discovering players like four-time All-Pro cornerback Cornell Green and Pro Football Hall of Fame wide receiver Bob Hayes. Brandt helped field the team that came to win two Super Bowls under Tom Landry by combining these technological advances in scouting and developing the Cowboys system based heavily on numbers and statistics.

In the 30-plus years that passed since 1989, Brandt became one of the greatest ambassadors for not only the Cowboys, but for the entire National Football League. Each year, he worked at the NFL Combine, the Super Bowl , the NFL Draft, and at the Pro Football Hall of Fame induction, handling a wide variety of duties. In all, Brandt was involved with professional football for over 60 years, a remarkable achievement that continued until his passing. He is credited with helping to create the NFL Scouting Combine, and he was solely responsible for overseeing player invitations to the NFL draft.

Brandt was born March 4, 1932 in Milwaukee, Wisc., and died on Aug. 31, 2023.

BRANDT'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 20 Consecutive Winning Seasons (1966-85)
- ★ 13 Divisional Titles
- ★ Super Bowl VI and XII Titles
- ★ Helped Create the NFL Scouting Combine
- ★ Modernized Scouting Methods Using Technology
- ★ Drafted Nine Hall of Fame Players



33 ★ TONY DORSETT ★
Running Back, 1977-87
INDUCTED – 1994

Tony Dorsett arrived in Dallas in 1977 via a draft-day deal the Cowboys swung with the Seattle Seahawks for the sole intention of selecting the Heisman Trophy winner from the University of Pittsburgh. Then Cowboys president and General Manager Tex Schramm paid what seemed like a bundle for the right to draft Dorsett: one first-round, and three second-round choices. Following an 11-year career in Dallas, he indeed proved to be a steal of a deal for an eventual Pro Football Hall of Fame player.

The Dorsett deal paid dividends in his very first year with the Cowboys, as the four-time All-American picked up where he left off in college, rushing for 1,007 yards to earn NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors and at the time, set the rushing bar for rookie running backs in Dallas.

"A lot of the people said I wouldn't last in this league," Dorsett said in 1987. "I was the skinny little kid from Aliquippa, Pa., who wasn't supposed to make it."

Dorsett did make it, in fact he became one of the greatest running backs in NFL history. On Sept. 26, 1988 while playing his final NFL season with the Denver Broncos, Dorsett moved into second place on the NFL all-time rushing list with 12,306 rushing yards, and eventually finished his career with 12,739 yards. At the time, Dorsett trailed only Walter Payton when he retired after suffering a knee injury the following summer, but now ranks 10th behind Emmitt Smith, Payton, Frank Gore, Barry Sanders, Adrian Peterson, Curtis Martin, LaDainian Tomlinson, Jerome Bettis and Eric Dickerson.

By the time Dorsett completed his 12-year career, he had collected a victory in Super Bowl XII, four Pro Bowl selections, one All-Pro honor and three All-NFC selections.

One of the most notable moments of Dorsett's career came on Jan. 2, 1983, before a Monday Night Football television audience playing against the Minnesota Vikings. Dorsett received a handoff from quarterback Danny White and proceeded to run 99-yards for a touchdown, thus recording an unbreakable NFL record. Dorsett's greatest season came in 1981 when he rushed for 1,646 yards, a franchise record at the time, a total that now ranks fourth all-time.

"When he came to us, we hadn't had a strong running attack for about three years," Hall of Fame quarterback Roger Staubach once said. "Tony Dorsett is one of the greatest backs in NFL history."

Dorsett was the Heisman Trophy winner in 1976 and was the first Pitt football player to have his jersey retired. Dorsett left Pitt as a four-time All-American and four-time 1,000-yard rusher. His final collegiate highlight was a 27-3 victory over Georgia in the Sugar Bowl to claim the national title.

In 1994 Dorsett became the ninth Cowboys player inducted into the Ring of Honor, and that same year he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

He was born April 7, 1954, in Rochester, Pa.

DORSETT'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 4-Time Pro Bowl selection
- ★ 1-Time All-Pro
- ★ NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year
- ★ 3 All-NFC selections
- ★ Super Bowl XII Title
- ★ NFL Record 99-yard TD Run (Jan. 3, 1983 at Minnesota)
- ★ 10th All-Time NFL Career Rushing (12,739)
- ★ 1976 Heisman Trophy (University of Pittsburgh)

94 ★ CHARLES HALEY ★
Defensive End, 1992-1996
INDUCTED – 2015

One of the most gifted pass rushers in his time in the NFL, Charles Haley left Dallas as the only player in league history to collect five Super Bowl rings. A mainstay on the Cowboys defensive line since arriving in Dallas via a trade with San Francisco in 1992, Haley earned his final ring in a 27-17 win over Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XXX. As a starter on Super Bowl contenders from his first day in the league, Haley played on 11 playoff teams in his 12 years in the league. Haley joined the San Francisco 49ers in 1986 as the team's fourth round draft pick (96th overall) and developed into one of the NFL's most devastating pass rushers during a career split between the 49ers and Cowboys.

Haley was a member of two 49ers championship teams (Super Bowls XXIII and XXIV) before his trade to Dallas. He earned three more Super Bowl rings during his first four seasons with the Cowboys.

Haley began his NFL career at linebacker and led San Francisco in sacks in each of his first six seasons. He recorded four double-digit sack totals with the 49ers, including 12.0 sacks as a rookie and a career-high and NFC-leading 16.0 sacks in 1990. He was moved to defensive end after his trade to Dallas and continued to excel at pressuring the quarterback. He added two more double-digit sack seasons in 1994 (12.5) and 1995 (10.5). Haley then suffered a serious back injury in 1996 that limited him to just five games. He retired after undergoing surgery. However, after a two-year hiatus, Haley re-signed with the 49ers as a backup defensive end for two playoff games in 1998. He came back to play one final season in 1999 and added 3.0 sacks to his career total.

When he walked away for the final time, Haley had amassed 100.5 sacks during his 169-game career. He was twice named NFC Defensive Player of the Year (1990 and 1994), voted to five Pro Bowls and named All-Pro two times, once as a linebacker and once as a defensive end. He played in six NFC championship games over a seven-season period. He started at left outside linebacker for the 49ers in the 1988, 1989, and 1990 games and at right defensive end for the Cowboys in the conference championships in 1992, 1993, and 1994. He was inactive for the Cowboys victory in the 1995 NFC Championship Game.

Haley was a member of 10 division championship teams during his 12-season NFL career. His final season marked the only year he played on a team with a losing record. Prior to that, the fewest number of wins in a season any 49ers and Cowboys team recorded with Haley on the roster was 10.

Haley was born Jan. 6, 1964 in Gladys, Va.

HALEY'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ Super Bowl XIII, XXIV, XXVII, XXVIII and XXX titles
- ★ 5-time Pro Bowl selection
- ★ 2-time All Pro
- ★ 19th player in NFL history to top 100.0 career sacks
- ★ 2-time NFC Defensive Player of the Year (1990 and 1994)

43 ★ CLIFF HARRIS ★

Safety, 1970-79
INDUCTED – 2020

Arriving in Dallas in 1970 as an undrafted free agent from tiny Ouachita Baptist in Arkansas, Cliff Harris went on to crack the starting lineup as a rookie, before missing time to military service. Harris then started the next nine consecutive years and earned six consecutive Pro Bowls and was named to four straight All-NFL teams.

A key member of two Super Bowl winning teams, and teams that earned three more trips to Super Bowls in the 70s, Harris was at his best in the postseason, finishing his career with six interceptions in 21 playoff games and earned a spot on the 1970s NFL All-Decade Team.

Harris, who earned the nickname "Captain Crash" by his teammates for his punishing hits and reckless pursuit of ball carriers, finished his 10-year Cowboys career with 29 interceptions and 16 fumble recoveries - tied for second in team history. Harris also guided the defense to a top-10 finish in each of his 10 seasons with Dallas, including the best defense in the league in 1977. When he retired, his 29 interceptions ranked fifth on the team's all-time interceptions list.

Early in his career, Harris saw time returning kickoffs and punts, averaging a career-best 28.4 yards-per-kickoff return in 1971. Over the five years in which he saw time as a returner (1970-74), he took back 63 kickoffs for 1,622 yards (25.7) and 66 punts for 418 yards (6.3) with 29 fair catches.

He led or tied for the team lead in interceptions three times (1974, 1977, 1979), kickoff returns twice (1971-72) and punt returns twice (1971-72), and his six postseason interceptions rank third in Cowboys history.

Upon retiring, Harris' name popped up on a few league records - tied for the most Super Bowl games by an individual (five), most postseason fumble recoveries (four) and tied for the most postseason games (21).

Harris was also inducted into the NAIA Hall of Fame in Kansas City in 1978.

He was born Nov. 12, 1948 in Fayetteville, Ark.

HARRIS' ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 6-Time Pro Bowl selection
- ★ 4 All-NFL Teams
- ★ Super Bowl VI and XII titles
- ★ 5 Super Bowl appearances
- ★ 7 NFC East titles
- ★ 7 NFC Championship Games
- ★ 1970s All-Decade Team
- ★ 22.1 yards-per-kickoff return, club playoff record

22 ★ BOB HAYES ★
Wide Receiver, 1965-74
INDUCTED – 2009

In his 10 seasons with the Dallas Cowboys, "Bullet" Bob Hayes revolutionized the wide receiver position and the way defenses would play in the NFL. He began his 11-year NFL career after winning two Olympic gold medals at the 1964 Olympic Games in Tokyo, Japan. He tied the world record (10.06 seconds) in the 100-meter dash and claimed his second gold medal running the anchor leg of the 400-meter relay to earn the title of "The World's Fastest Human." He arrived in Dallas in similar fashion to become -- and remain -- the only rookie in franchise history to ever lead the team in receptions (46), receiving yards (1,003) and a rookie club record of 12 touchdown catches. His 12 touchdown receptions as a rookie are currently tied for fifth in league history. His speed and threat of being able to go long forced teams to install the zone defense to corral Hayes.

Hayes finished his Cowboys career with 365 catches (eighth), for 7,295 yards (sixth) and 71 touchdowns (second). In club record books, Hayes still holds team receiving marks for most points in a game (24, tied), most touchdowns in a game (four, tied), longest reception (95t), highest career receiving average (20.0), highest single-season receiving average (26.1), touchdowns in a season by a rookie (12) and touchdowns in a game (four, tied).

Hayes was also a threat as a punt returner, returning 104 punts (fifth in team history) for 1,158 yards (fourth) and three touchdowns (tied for second). His 11.1 yard-per-return average is second in team record books only to Deion Sanders (13.3).

Hayes was a three-time Pro Bowl selection and became just the third rookie in club history (Don Perkins -- 1961 and Mel Renfro -- 1964) to be named to the Pro Bowl. He also earned All-Pro selections four times (1965-68) and was inducted into the Dallas Cowboys Ring of Honor in a halftime celebration against San Diego on Sept. 23, 2001.

Hayes split his time between football and track and field at Florida A&M where he became famous as the "World's Fastest Human." In 1963 he set the world record (9.1 seconds) in the 100-yard dash, a record that stood for 11 years.

Hayes was born December 20, 1942 and died on Sept. 18, 2002.

HAYES' ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 3-Time Pro Bowl selection
- ★ Super Bowl VI title
- ★ 2 Eastern Conference Titles
- ★ 2 NFC East titles
- ★ 2 NFC titles
- ★ Holds or tied for 15 club records
- ★ 2 Capitol Division Titles
- ★ Won two Olympic gold medals at the 1964 Olympic Games in Tokyo, Japan

54 ★ CHUCK HOWLEY ★
Linebacker, 1961-73
INDUCTED – 2023

By the time Chuck Howley retired in 1973, legendary Hall of Fame coach Tom Landry said, "I don't know that I've seen anybody better at linebacker than Howley."

Howley almost didn't play professional football for 15 years. He originally retired from the game after two seasons with the Chicago Bears (1958-59) following a knee injury that cost him the entire 1960 season.

Still passionate about the game, Howley decided to test his knee injury at an alumni game at his alma mater, West Virgina, in 1961. His performance in the alumni game reenergized his appetite for football, and the following season he was traded from Chicago to the Dallas Cowboys, a franchise about to embark on their second season, for two future draft picks.

Howley, who was eligible for the Hall of Fame for more than 40 years, spent his final 13 seasons in Dallas (1961-73) as a leader on the Doomsday Defense. He played in two NFL Championship games and two Super Bowls. A five-time All-Pro and six-time Pro Bowler, Howley intercepted 25 passes and recovered 18 fumbles in 180 career regular season games.

In the Cowboys 13-16 loss to the Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl V, Howley intercepted two passes and recovered a fumble en route to winning Super Bowl MVP. To this day, Howley is still the only player in NFL history to be named Super Bowl MVP from the losing team.

One year later in the 1971 season, Howley led the Cowboys with an interception and fumble recovery while Dallas claimed its first Super Bowl title in a 24-3 win over the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl VI.

Howley was a five-sport letterman at West Virginia, including the Southern Conference one-meter diving champion, a sprinter on the track team, and he excelled in gymnastics and wrestling. In football, Howley was All-Southern Conference for three years and was named Southern Conference Athlete of the Year his junior year.

He was the fourth player in franchise history to be inducted into the Ring of Honor during halftime of the Cowboys-Lions game on Oct. 30, 1977.

Howley was born June 28, 1936.

HOWLEY'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

★ 6-Time Pro Bowl selection
★ 5-Time All-Pro
★ Super Bowl V title
★ Only player from the losing team to win Super Bowl MVP
★ 2 NFC titles

Chuck Howley was named Super Bowl MVP in the Cowboys 13-16 loss to the Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl V, the only player in NFL history to earn Super Bowl MVP honors in a loss.

88 ★ MICHAEL IRVIN ★

Wide Receiver, 1988-99
INDUCTED – 2007

Despite having his career cut short due to a spine injury, Michael Irvin left the NFL following the 1999 season owning or tied for 20 Cowboys receiving records. Those marks included career receptions (750), yardage (11,904) and 100-yard receiving games (47). During his illustrious career, Irvin also etched his name in the NFL record books. In league history, only Jerry Rice (12) and Steve Largent (eight) had recorded more 1,000-yard receiving seasons than the seven produced by Irvin at the time of his retirement. His 11 100-yard receiving games during the 1995 season is still the NFL standard, as is the seven consecutive 100-yard games he produced that same year. Irvin's 47 career 100-yard receiving games are tied for 10th in NFL history, and the Cowboys posted a 36-11 record when Irvin topped the 100-yard mark. In the 1990s, Irvin's consistent ability to achieve at the highest level established his place among the game's elite receivers. He finished his career tied with Charlie Joiner for 10th in NFL history on the all-time reception list, and he was ninth in league history in receiving yardage.

Irvin was selected to five Pro Bowls between 1991-98, giving him two more Pro Bowl appearances than any other wide receiver in club history. He is one of only two Cowboys players (Jason Witten 2007-11) to top 75 catches in five straight seasons (1991-1995), and his reception and yardage totals for six of the years between 1991-98 represent six of the top nine single-season performances in club history: 1997 (75 receptions for 1,180 yards); 1995 (111 for 1,603); 1994 (79 for 1,241), 1993 (88 for 1,330), 1992 (78 for 1,396) and 1991 (93 for 1,523). Irvin also stands alone as the club record holder in terms of most consecutive seasons leading the team in receptions (eight, 1991-98) and most total seasons leading the club in receptions (eight). He led or tied for the team lead in catches in 85 of his last 130 regular season games. Including playoff games, he had a catch of 20-yards-or-more in 121 of the 175 NFL games he played. Irvin's career receiving average of 15.9 is the fourth highest in team history, and he is fourth on the club's all-time receiving touchdown list with 65 - trailing Dez Bryant (73), Witten (72) and Bob Hayes (71).

Of his 750 career regular season catches, 95 went for 20-29 yards, 38 for 30-39, 18 for 40-49, 10 for 50-59 and nine for 60 yards-or-more. After entering the League in 1988, he started 147-of-159 regular season games (163-of-175 including playoffs). Irvin did not miss a start due to injury after the 1990 season, when he was overcoming a 1989 knee injury. Always a clutch performer, he became Troy Aikman's go-to-guy on third or fourth down and prospered, leading the team in catches on third or fourth down for first downs in '92 (22), '93 (16), '94 (20), '95 (27), '97 (23) and '98 (16). He had 165 first down catches on third or fourth down in his last 121 games and 185 after returning from the knee injury in 1990.

His performance in the postseason was every bit as impressive as his consistent play throughout the regular season. His six career 100-yard receiving days in the postseason are two shy of the NFL mark of eight by Jerry Rice. Irvin's 87 postseason receptions place him sixth in NFL playoff history, and his 1,315 postseason receiving yards rank second in league annals behind Rice (2,245).

Irvin was the 11th overall choice in 1988 draft out of Miami, Florida, where in just three seasons as a starter he set career records for catches (143), receiving yards (2,423) and touchdown receptions (26).

Irvin was born March 3, 1966.

IRVIN'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 5-Time Pro Bowl selection
- ★ Super Bowl XXVII, XXVIII and XXX titles
- ★ 3 NFC Titles
- ★ 6 NFC East Titles
- ★ Held or tied for 20 club receiving records
- ★ 1991 NFL Alumni Wide Receiver of the Year

★ JIMMY JOHNSON ★
Head Coach, 1989-93
INDUCTED – 2020

Jimmy Johnson was named the first Cowboys head coach under then new owner Jerry Jones in 1989. He arrived in the pro ranks after a very successful collegiate coaching career that included a national championship with the University of Miami.

In five seasons with the Cowboys, Johnson guided the team to two Super Bowl championships. In his first season in Dallas, Johnson's team finished 1-15, then 7-9 in 1990 before making a return to the playoffs in 1991 with an 11-5 finish.

The Cowboys then returned to the top of the NFL in 1992 and 1993 with back-to-back Super Bowl titles. Both seasons, Dallas claimed NFC Eastern Division titles, defeated the San Francisco 49ers in the NFC Championship game and overcame the Buffalo Bills in the Super Bowl.

On a personal front, Johnson was named NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press following the 1990 season after the team posted a 7-9 finish, narrowly missing the postseaon by one game.

Johnson's 1992 team finished with a team-record 13 wins en route to an NFC Eastern Division crown. Dallas beat the Eagles in the Divisional round, followed by a win over the 49ers in the NFC Conference Championship. Dallas' return to the Super Bowl was highlighted by a 52-17 win over the Bills - the team's first league title since the 1977 season.

The following season, the defending NFL champion Dallas Cowboys entered the playoffs as the NFC's number one seed with 12-4 regular season finish. Dallas handed the Green Bay Packers a loss, then beat the 49ers to earn a rematch with the Bills in Super Bowl XXVIII. The Cowboys dealt Buffalo a 30-13 loss to claim Dallas' fourth Super Bowl championship.

Johnson left Dallas after compiling a 44-36 regular season record (.550 winning percentage) and an impressive 7-1 postseason mark (.875). He coached 10 Pro Bowl players who earned a combined 22 Pro Bowl selections in his five seasons in Dallas. Johnson also coached five future Hall of Famers in the peak of their careers - Troy Aikman, Larry Allen, Charles Haley, Michael Irvin and Emmitt Smith.

He returned to the NFL sidelines as the head coach of the Miami Dolphins (1996). After Miami finished 8-8 in Johnson's first year, the club strung together three consecutive winning seasons and playoff berths. Johnson's best season in Miami came in 1998 when his defense led the league in fewest points allowed (265) and led the league in interceptions (29), finishing with a 10-6 record.

In total, Johnson's regular season NFL record was 80-64, and his club's were 9-4 in the playoffs for an overall mark of 89-68-0.

Johnson was born July 16, 1943 in Port Arthur, Texas.

JOHNSON'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ Super Bowl XXVII and XXVIII Titles
- ★ 1990 NFL Coach of the Year
- ★ Three playoff appearances in five years

★ JERRY JONES ★
Owner/President/General Manager, 1989-Present
INDUCTED – 2017

Recognized around the NFL as one of his era's most influential and passionate owners, Jerry Jones was selected for induction to the Pro Football Hall of Fame as a contributor in February of 2017.

In addition to becoming the first NFL owner to lead his franchise to three Super Bowl titles (1992, 93 and 95) in a four year period of time, Jones' efforts in the areas of sports marketing, promotion, stadium development, and network television negotiations created a lasting imprint on the landscape of the NFL and the American sports culture.

Since his purchase of the Cowboys in 1989, the team has won 13 division titles, while advancing to the postseason 18 times and reaching the NFC Championship game four times.

As Dallas' general manager, Jones has overseen personnel efforts that include the acquisition of 63 different players who have combined for a collective total of 184 Pro Bowl appearances as Cowboys. Seven Cowboys players from Jones' tenure of ownership have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame -- Troy Aikman, Michael Irvin, Emmitt Smith, Deion Sanders, Larry Allen, Charles Haley and DeMarcus Ware - while Jones has served as the presenter for four of those men: Irvin, Smith, Allen and Ware.

The lasting landmarks to Jones' legacy of promoting and protecting the future of the sport of football can be seen in the conception and construction of AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas and The Star in Frisco, Texas. The stadium, which opened in 2009, has a capacity of over 100,000 and is the largest and most technologically sound indoor/outdoor stadium in the world. The Star, which serves as the world training headquarters for the Dallas Cowboys, is a state-of-the-art venue that enjoys a first-of-its-kind partnership with its surrounding community in Frisco, Texas, and the young men and women who compete in athletics at the high school and youth sports levels.

On the league level, Jones has served lengthy stints on nearly every significant NFL ownership committee, including the Competition Committee, the Broadcast Committee, the Management Council's Executive Committee, the Health and Safety Advisory Committee, and he is currently the chairman of the NFL Network and Pro Football Hall of Fame Committees.

Born on October 13, 1942, Jones' connections to the game of football go back to his playing days at North Little Rock High School. He then earned a scholarship to play at the University of Arkansas where he was a co-captain of the 1964 Razorbacks' national championship team.

Jones, who became the 15th NFL owner to be selected for induction into the Hall of Fame, is the only man in football history to both play for a collegiate national championship football team and own a Super Bowl winning club.

Jones was born on Oct. 13, 1942 in Los Angeles, Calif.

★ TOM LANDRY ★
Head Coach, 1960-88
INDUCTED – 1990

Tom Landry paced the sidelines as the "only head coach" in Dallas Cowboys history for 29 years in his trademark fedora. By the time Landry's coaching career ended following the 1988 season, he had compiled a 270-178-6 record, then the third most wins in NFL history.

That distinguished career was good enough for Landry to gain entry into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990 and the Cowboys Ring of Honor in 1993, thanks to leading the Cowboys to two Super Bowl titles, five Super Bowl appearances, five NFC Championships, 13 division titles and an incredible 20 consecutive winning seasons.

"This team has always played for me," Landry said. "That was the key to why I continued coaching. If they wouldn't play for me, I would have been out a long time ago. They always played hard and tried hard."

Landry's head coaching career did not start out very smoothly, coming over from the N.Y. Giants staff to take over the expansion Cowboys in 1960. That first year ended with an 0-11-1 in 1960, the tie coming against Landry's former team the Giants, preventing the Cowboys from going winless. The Cowboys went on to suffer through losing seasons in the first five years, before going 7-7 in 1965.

But from that point on, Landry turned the franchise into "America's Team," the Cowboys reeling off 20 consecutive winning seasons from 1966-85, one of the longest winning streaks in all of professional sports.

As a player-coach with the Giants before coming to the Cowboys, Landry helped to develop what would eventually become a base defense in the NFL, the 4-3. It was innovations like this that caught the attention of Cowboys owner Clint Murchison Jr. and president Tex Schramm when it came time to select the franchise's first head coach.

As head coach of the Cowboys, Landry introduced more innovations to the game, including offensive motion. Very seldom did the Cowboys run a play from the formation they initially lined up in after breaking the huddle. Landry brought back the shotgun formation, popularized situational substitutions and concocted the "Flex" defense.

Walking the sidelines characteristically stoic, Landry was always thinking a couple of plays ahead and what the long-term effects of each play he called might be. He coached football as if it were a chess match, positioning his team in the best way to win in the end. And in the end, no one coached with more success for a longer period of time than Landry. That success was the impetus for Landry's induction into Pro Football Hall of Fame less than two years after he coached his last game.

The legendary coach, born Sept. 11, 1924, in Mission, Texas, died Feb. 12, 2000 of leukemia.

LANDRY'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 20 Consecutive Winning Seasons (1966-85)
- ★ Super Bowl VI and XII Titles
- ★ 2 NFL Championship game appearances
- ★ 5 NFC Titles
- ★ 13 Divisional Titles
- ★ 1966 NFL Coach of the Year

74 ★ BOB LILLY ★
Defensive Tackle, 1961-74
INDUCTED – 1980

Before earning the nickname "Mr. Cowboy," Bob Lilly was the first player ever drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in 1961. So it is fitting that Lilly not only became the first Cowboys player inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1975, but also became the franchise's first player inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1980.

During the course of 14 seasons with the Cowboys, Lilly was named Rookie of the Year in 1961, was selected to the Pro Bowl a club-record-tying 11-times (Jason Witten) – 10 consecutive selections between 1964-74 – was named to the All-Pro team seven times and played in two Super Bowls, including the club's very first Super Bowl victory, 24-3 over Miami in Super Bowl VI.

As the foundation of the famed "Doomsday Defense," Lilly's intensity was readily apparent in an infamous scene after the Cowboys Super Bowl V loss to the Baltimore Colts when he ripped his helmet off and hurled it into the air. The following year, the Lilly-led Cowboys defense held Miami to only a field goal in Super Bowl VI, the fewest points every given up in Super Bowl history.

"The competition is what I love," Lilly once said. "That makes me a lot more intense. Personalities don't enter into it at all. My objective is to get the man with the ball. Nobody better get in my way."

Lilly is the Cowboys all-time leader in consecutive games played at 196, is tied for second with 14 seasons played and second all-time with 194 games started. Lilly led the Cowboys in sacks three consecutive years, beginning with his rookie season.

"A man like that comes along once in a lifetime," late Cowboys head coach Tom Landry said in 1972. "He is something a little bit more than great. Nobody is better than Bob Lilly."

Lilly was a two-time All-American defensive end at Texas Christian University and a two-time all-Southwest Conference team selection.

He was born July 26, 1939, in Olney, Texas.

LILLY'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 11-Time Pro Bowl selection (Tied for Franchise Record)

- ★ Super Bowl VI Title

Bob Lilly was the first Cowboys player inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1980.

88 ★ DREW PEARSON ★
Wide Receiver, 1973-83
INDUCTED – 2021

Drew Pearson played 11 seasons with the Dallas Cowboys, beginning a long-standing tradition of greatness from players to don the number 88 jersey. A former undrafted free agent, Pearson was named to the All-Decade Team of the 1970s as he earned a niche as one of the top clutch receivers in football history, best exemplified by his 50-yard touchdown connection with Roger Staubach in what would be dubbed as the first ever Hail Mary play.

He led the team in receptions and receiving yards four consecutive seasons (1974-77) and recorded two 1,000-yard campaigns. In an era where passing offenses had not yet evolved into high powered aerial attacks, Pearson soared past his offensive peers, posting the most 800-yard receiving seasons (five) of any player in the 70s - including two 1,000-yard campaigns that were tied for the most by any player - and six seasons with 40-or-more catches to tie for the second-most.

Over the course of 156 games in Dallas, Pearson totaled 489 catches for 7,822 yards and 48 touchdowns, becoming the third Cowboys player to surpass 7,000-career yards. Combined with his 189 rushing yards, Pearson was the first Cowboys player to ever reach 8,000 scrimmage yards, and to this day, is only one-of-seven Cowboys players to reach that mark. Pearson ranks fifth in Cowboys history with a career average of 16.0 yards-per-reception. Pearson had a penchant for scoring long touchdowns, and of his 48 career touchdowns through the air, he scored 22 from 20-plus yards.

He has a resume filled with memorable game-winning catches. In 1980 he became the Cowboys all-time leading receiver in receptions, and in 1983, he took the top spot for receiving yards. He is littered through team and league postseason record books, including a catch in a club-record 22 consecutive playoff games. Pearson was a member of three Cowboys teams to reach the Super Bowl in the 1970s, winning Super Bowl XII in 1977. His game-winning "Hail Mary" catch against the Vikings in Minnesota in the divisional round of the 1975 playoffs will forever be remembered, as he caught a 50-yard heave from Staubach in the waning moments to give Dallas a 17-14 victory, propelling the Cowboys to an eventual Super Bowl appearance.

A three-time Pro Bowl selection and three-time first-team All-Pro honoree, Pearson led the NFL with 870 receiving yards in 1977. He was inducted in the Cowboys Ring of Honor during halftime of the Cowboys-Seahawks game on Nov. 6, 2011.

Pearson played collegiately at Tulsa, beginning his career as a quarterback before switching to wide receiver as a junior. Pearson received the University's President's Award as the team's "most unselfish" member as a senior, and in 1985 he was inducted into the Tulsa Athletics Hall of Fame.

He was born January 12, 1951, in South River, New Jersey.

PEARSON'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ Three-time Pro Bowl and All-Pro Selection
- ★ Led the Cowboys in receiving four consecutive seasons
- ★ Led NFL with five 800-yard seasons in the 70s
- ★ Club-record 22 consecutive playoff games with a catch
- ★ All-Decade Team of the 1970s
- ★ Super Bowl XII Title

20 ★ MEL RENFRO ★
Defensive Back, 1964-77
INDUCTED – 1996

Mel Renfro first came to the Cowboys as a highly-acclaimed running back out of the University of Oregon. But Cowboys head coach Tom Landry saw Renfro as a defensive back when they selected him in the second round of the 1964 draft.

And what a defensive back he was during his 14-year career, becoming arguably the best safety/cornerback to ever play for the Cowboys, and one of the best to ever play in the NFL. His 52 career interceptions still stand as a team record, and his 26.4-yard career kickoff-return average is second - both a tribute to his running ability.

The NFL certainly got to know Renfro in a hurry, having been elected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first 10 seasons in the NFL – the first six at free safety and the final four at cornerback. His 10 Pro Bowl appearances are tied for third with Larry Allen, just one behind Bob Lilly (11) and Jason Witten (11) for the Cowboys.

On top of his 10 Pro Bowls, Renfro was a four-time All-Pro, playing in four Super Bowls and eight NFC Championships. He became the fifth member of the exclusive Ring of Honor in 1981, and was finally elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1996 in his 14th year of eligibility.

Renfro's 14 seasons with the Dallas Cowboys ties him for second in club history, just one shy of the record.

While at Oregon, Renfro led the team in rushing three consecutive years and was a two-time All-American. Despite coming to the NFL as an acclaimed runner, Renfro only ran the ball eight times during his career, all in 1966. Landry saw a free safety first, Renfro spending his first six seasons at safety and the final eight at corner.

In the middle of Renfro's All-Pro 1969 season, Landry was uncharacteristically complimentary toward one of his players, calling him "the best in the league at free safety."

But the Cowboys certainly figured out a way to capitalize on Renfro's running ability, having him return punts and kickoffs early in his career. He led the NFL in kickoff and punt returns his rookie season, and had seven interceptions, returning one for a touchdown. Renfro still is tied for the franchise lead with two career touchdown returns, and his 30-yard kickoff return average in 1965 still remains as the single-season high.

But it was interceptions Renfro was best known for during his career. In his first six years at free safety, Renfro totaled 30 interceptions. His interception totals declined somewhat when Landry moved him to cornerback for good in 1970. The decline had more to do with quarterbacks' reluctance to throw his way than any diminishing skills or quickness. His 626 interception return yards still stands as a career record for the Cowboys.

That 1971 Pro Bowl possibly was the greatest indication of Renfro's all-round ability. Not only did he play cornerback, but be also returned two punts for touchdowns, leading the NFC to a 27-6 win and earning the game's Most Valuable Player award.

He was born Dec. 30, 1941, in Houston, Texas.

RENFRO'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 5-Time All-Pro
- ★ 10-Time Pro Bowl selection
- ★ 3-Time All-NFC
- ★ Cowboys Career Record 52 interceptions
- ★ Cowboys Career Record 626 interception return yards
- ★ 2nd in Cowboys history with a 26.4-yard kickoff-return average
- ★ Super Bowl VI and XII Titles
- ★ 4 NFC Championships

21 ★ DEION SANDERS ★
Cornerback, 1995-99
INDUCTED – 2011

On Sept. 9 1995, the Dallas Cowboys made the biggest free agent move in the franchise's history by signing Deion Sanders to a long term contract. In doing so, Dallas was able to secure the services of one of the most talented cornerbacks in the history of the NFL. His stardom in the NFL was apparent from his first career game when he returned a punt 68 yards for a touchdown. More of that spectacular play continued throughout his 14-season, 188-game career. Sanders, who spent time with five different NFL teams, scored a total of six touchdowns on punt returns, three on kickoff returns, and returned nine interceptions for scores. The multi-faceted athlete also returned one fumble for a touchdown and had 60 receptions for 784 yards and three touchdowns with the Atlanta Falcons (1989-1993), San Francisco 49ers (1994), Dallas Cowboys (1995-99), Washington Redskins (2000) and Baltimore Ravens (2004-05). In all, he recorded 53 interceptions including five with the Ravens when he returned to the field after a three-year retirement.

Sanders was an extremely gifted and versatile athlete, who was also a Major League Baseball player. As a baseball player, Sanders spent time with the New York Yankees (1989-90), Atlanta Braves (1991-94), Cincinnati Reds (1994-95, 1997, 2001) and San Francisco Giants (1995). He is the only man in professional sports to play in both a World Series (batting at a .533 World Series clip with Atlanta in 1992) and in the Super Bowl (with victorious San Francisco and Dallas teams following the 1994 and 1995 seasons). To further validate his versatility, Sanders is the only man in NFL history who has recorded both a pass reception – a 47-yarder, the longest completion of the game in Super Bowl XXX – and an interception – returned for 15 yards in Super Bowl XXIX – in Super Bowl action. After helping the Cowboys win Super Bowl XXX, Sanders announced on Feb. 20, 1996 that he would play football exclusively for the entire 1996 season. As a result, Sanders started 16 regular season games at cornerback and another eight at wide receiver – becoming the first two-way starter in the NFL since the Philadelphia Eagles Chuck Bednarik, who retired in 1962. At the completion of the 1996 football season, Sanders returned to baseball, signing with the Reds, and led the league in stolen bases (56) in the 1997 season before returning to football on a full-time basis in September.

He was selected to eight Pro Bowls, and became a member of the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s as both a cornerback and a punt returner, leading the NFL in punt returns in 1998. He also led the NFC in kickoffs in 1992 and interceptions in 1991 and 1993. He was named first-team All-Pro nine times at cornerback in addition to receiving All-NFL acclaim by some media outlets as a kick returner in 1992 and as a punt returner in 1998. Sanders won two Super Bowls during his career. He started at right cornerback for the 49ers in their 49-26 victory over the San Diego Chargers in Super Bowl XXIX and at left cornerback in the Cowboys 27-17 win over the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XXX.

His 23 career touchdowns (including playoffs) have been scored in the following manner: interceptions (nine), pass receptions (three), rushes (one), kickoff returns (three), punt returns (six) and fumble recoveries (one). Sanders holds the NFL record for career touchdowns scored on any type of return with 18. Perhaps the one statistic that supports Sanders' status as one of the game's greatest playmakers is his 25.1-yard career interception average on 53 career thefts (1,331 yards), ranking him seventh all-time. He retired second all-time in interception return yardage (1,331) and tied for second for most interceptions returned for a touchdown in a career (nine) and a season (three). His career-high 303 yards gained on interception returns with the 49ers in 1994 was third best ever in the NFL at the time of his retirement. He also returned three picks for touchdowns (74, 93, 90 yards) that season to become the first player ever to have two 90-yard interception returns for touchdowns in the same season. He was named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year.

Sanders was originally drafted by Atlanta in the first round (fifth overall) of the 1989 NFL Draft out of Florida State, just behind Troy Aikman (first overall selection in 1989).

Sanders was born Aug. 9, 1967 in Fort Myers, Fla.

SANDERS' ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ Only man in professional sports to play in both a World Series and in a Super Bowl
- ★ Super Bowl XXIX and XXX Titles
- ★ 8 -Time Pro Bowl selection
- ★ Member of the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s as both a cornerback and a punt returner
- ★ Named first-team All-Pro nine times at cornerback
- ★ Holds the NFL record for career touchdowns scored on any type of return with 18
- ★ 1994 NFL Defensive Player of the Year

★ TEX SCHRAMM ★
President and General Manager, 1959-89
INDUCTED – 1991

Texas Earnest Schramm Jr., better known as "Tex," rose to Professional Football Hall of Fame status during his 29 seasons as president and general manager of the Dallas Cowboys, turning a 1960 expansion franchise in Dallas into one of the most successful franchises in NFL history.

With Schramm overseeing the birth and growth of the Cowboys organization, the team reached five Super Bowls, winning two, made 18 playoff appearances and compiled an NFL-record 20 consecutive winning seasons, one of the longest such streaks in all of professional sports.

Schramm was an NFL pioneer and innovator. Under his watch, the Dallas Cowboys were always on the cutting edge with revolutionary ideas and visions. He was instrumental in creating the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders, the first of their kind in professional football, developing the Cowboys Ring of Honor and bringing an annual Cowboys Thanksgiving Day game to the nation.

Schramm's work was not just focused on the Dallas Cowboys, as his tireless efforts changed the face of the entire NFL. He was a driving force behind the development and implementation of instant replay, giving the head referee a microphone for penalty announcements, shortening the play-clock and helping to develop the wild-card playoff system.

A tough negotiator, Schramm was the engineer in building the Cowboys foundation from the ground up. His tough stance in labor negotiations was also evident in his support for using replacement players during the 1987 NFL strike. After just three weeks, the move proved successful and the players returned to work. The benefits of this would be apparent in future years as lasting labor peace was reached with the NFL Players Association in 1992 and has continued since.

His position as chairman of the NFL Competition Committee from 1966 to 1988 aided his innovative efforts. Schramm's impact on the league was widespread, and probably his most cherished legacy since the one-time TV-executive at CBS who first came up with the idea of televising the Winter Olympics in 1960 from Squaw Valley was such a firm believer in preserving and making history.

One of Schramm's most significant accomplishments in the NFL was coordinating the merger of the established NFL and the fledging American Football League in 1966, holding what amounted to as secret meetings with Kansas City Chiefs owner Lamar Hunt at the insistence of NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

The merger of the two warring leagues led to what became known as the Super Bowl, and when the leagues combined in 1970, the most powerful sports league in the world.

After Schramm departed the Cowboys in 1989 when Jerry Jones bought the club, he went international, becoming president of the upstart World League of American Football, later to become know as NFL Europe. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1991.

"I'm not one of the great athletes like the men behind me," a jubilant Schramm said during his Hall of Fame induction speech. "But I'm thrilled to be standing in front of them. Many of the men in here were my heroes. To be rubbing shoulders with them, it's beyond my comprehension."

In all, Schramm spent 44 years of his life in professional football, starting as a sportswriter for the Austin American-Statesman in 1947 - a natural step for the California-born Schramm who earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Texas. Schramm spent 10 seasons with the Los Angeles Rams (1947-56), where Schramm first came in contact with Rozelle, who Schramm hired to be the Rams public relations director in 1952. Schramm then spent a brief period (1957-59) at CBS before being hired by Clint Murchison in 1959 to oversee the startup of the Dallas expansion franchise.

Schramm was born on June 2, 1920, in San Gabriel, Calif., and died July 15, 2003.

SCHRAMM'S NFL LEGACY:

During Schramm's 25 years as chairman of the NFL's Competition Committee, the NFL implemented the following:

Year	Contribution
1970	Moved the official game time to the scoreboard clock
1972	Moved the hash marks toward the center of the field to aid offense
1974	Implemented stricter pass defense rules to influence scoring
1974	Moved goalposts from the goal line to the end line for safety and to help offensive play
1974	Developed the sudden-death overtime concept for breaking ties
1975	Gave the referee a microphone to announce calls to the crowd and TV audiences
1977	Made defensive linemen's head slaps illegal
1979	Implemented the in-the-grasp rule to protect quarterbacks
1986	Instituted Instant Replay to aid officials
	Enabled Quarterbacks to stop the clock by throwing the ball directly into the ground

22 ★ EMMITT SMITH ★
Running Back, 1990-2002
INDUCTED – 2010

In 15 seasons - 13 with Dallas - Emmitt Smith made an impact on the NFL that few players can match at any position or in any era. As the NFL's all-time leading rusher, Smith also won four NFL rushing titles, three Super Bowl titles and a league (1993) and Super Bowl (XXVIII) MVP award. He was selected to the Pro Bowl eight times, and among NFL running backs, only Barry Sanders (10) was selected more times. With 975 rushing yards in 2002, Smith became just the seventh player in NFL history to carry the title of all-time rushing leader, taking that designation from Walter Payton.

After 13 seasons in Dallas, Smith had 17,162 career rushing yards, and he moved past Payton's 16,726 career yard mark in Week Eight of the 2002 season against Seattle. Smith finished his pro career with 18,355 yards and is also the NFL's career rushing touchdowns leader (164), and second in league annals in total touchdowns (175), trailing Jerry Rice by 33. The first player in NFL history to post five straight seasons with over 1,400 yards rushing, Smith, Jim Brown and LaDainian Tomlinson are the only players with seven straight 10-touchdown seasons to start their career. With 1,021 yards rushing in 2001, Smith became the first player in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards in 11 consecutive seasons and the first to post 11 1,000-yard rushing seasons in a career.

Smith holds the NFL record for career rushing attempts with 4,409, passing Payton (3,838) in Week Three of the 2002 season. With a then NFL-record 25 rushing touchdowns in 1995, Smith scored 100 career touchdowns in just six seasons, originally the fastest anyone in league history had reached that mark. Smith also tied Brown's NFL record by scoring 100 touchdowns in just 93 career games. Since Smith's accomplishment, Tomlinson reached the feat in 89 games. His 25 career scores against the Arizona Cardinals is tied for the third-best total by a player against an opponent since 1970, followed by his 24 scores against Washington and the N.Y Giants.

His value to the Cowboys success can be seen in the club's 99-26 mark (91-24 in regular season) when he carried the ball 20-or-more times a game and 64-19 record (57-19 in regular season) when he rushed for 100 yards. The century mark became a big number in Smith's career, having rushed for 100 yards in 155-of-326 games dating back to high school, including 83-of-218 games with Dallas, including playoffs. In NFL annals, Smith's 78 regular season 100-yard rushing games is a record. Included in Smith's club-record 76 100-yard rushing games are 11 of the top-15 performances in team history and 18 days with over 150 yards (the fourth highest total of 150-yard games in NFL history). Smith rushed for over 100-yards against 22 of the 32 NFL teams.

In addition, he rushed for 2,466 yards against the Philadelphia Eagles in his 15-year career, his best output against any single opponent. That total ranks second since 1970 for running backs against one team. Smith also has the third and fourth best totals in that category.

One reason Smith was such a workhorse in the Dallas offense over the years was his ability to answer the bell at game time, having started 216-of-218 career games - including playoffs. While in Dallas, he missed just four career games due to injury, and it was that durability that enabled Smith to lead the Cowboys in rushing in 178 of his 201 career regular season games. The lack of decline in Smith's game is also evidenced by the fact that he had rushed for 5,928 yards from 1998-2002 – the fifth highest yardage total in the NFL over that time span. His 41 rushing touchdowns during his last five years in Dallas was the third-best figure in the league.

Not limited to rushing and scoring, Smith is fifth on the Cowboys all-time receptions list with 486 career catches, trailing Drew Pearson (489) by three receptions. Smith is one of only seven NFL players who have amassed over 9,000 career-rushing yards and 500 career receptions. He is second on the NFL's yards from scrimmage list and fourth on the NFL's all-time combined yardage list with 20,174 yards.

Smith was born on May 15, 1969 in Pensacola, Fla.

12 ★ ROGER STAUBACH ★
Quarterback, 1969-79
INDUCTED – 1985

Good things come to those who wait, and certainly the Dallas Cowboys patience in the mid-60's was supremely rewarded, landing one of the best players in franchise history because they were willing to wait for Roger Staubach to fulfill his military commitment.

For those five years of patience, the Cowboys landed the guy who became better know as "Roger The Dodger" over the next 11 years when he was selected to six Pro Bowls – including five consecutively – and was named the NFL Players Association Most Valuable Player in 1971. Staubach led the NFL in passing four times and was selected to the All-NFC team five times.

"He is one of the finest to ever play the game," Green Bay Packers Quarterback Bart Starr once said of Staubach. "I think if I had some of that Staubach competitiveness, I'd have been much better."

Staubach, the 1963 Heisman Trophy winner, was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in 1964 from the Naval Academy, but did not join the team until 1969 due to his Navy commitment. Former president and general manager Tex Schramm signed Staubach to a futures contract in a hotel room in 1964, actually scribbling out the details on a legal-sized tablet that would have Staubach paid annually to participate in training camp practices when he had enough leave built up.

The 1963 Heisman Trophy winner showed up in Dallas as a 27-year-old rookie, but in those 11 seasons still managed to carve out the franchise's all-time leading quarterback rating of 83.42 and became a four-time NFL passing champion. But Staubach almost became better known for his scrambling ability, and to this day ranks 14th on the Cowboys all-time rushing list with 2,264 yards.

Staubach owns the fourth-most passing yards in club history, 22,700, and his 3,586 in 1979 still ranks as the 14th most passing yards in a single season for the Cowboys. He also ranks second in club history with a career average of 7.67 yards-per-attempt.

Staubach also became known as "Captain Comeback" for his 23 fourth-quarter come-from-behind victories in regular season and playoff games, including 14 in the final two minutes or overtime. Never was this more apparent than in a 1975 playoff game against the Minnesota Vikings when Staubach connected with wide receiver Drew Pearson on a desperation 50-yard "Hail Mary" touchdown pass that knocked the Vikings out of the playoffs.

"You could never defeat Roger mentally or physically," late Cowboys head coach Tom Landry said in 1983. "He was like that in a game, in practice or in the business world."

Staubach ended his Cowboys career with four Super Bowl appearances, including wins in Super Bowls VI and XII. In Super Bowl VI, Staubach was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

Following the 1979 season, Staubach retired, fearing the after-effects of recurring concussions.

In 1983, Staubach became the sixth member of the Dallas Cowboys Ring of Honor and two years later was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

He was born Feb. 5, 1942, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

94 ★ DeMARCUS WARE ★
Linebacker, 2005-13
INDUCTED – 2023

DeMarcus Ware was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in the first round (11th overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft and quickly became one of the all-time greats to don the star on his helmet.

Ware spent nine seasons in Dallas (2005-13) and tallied a franchise-record 117.0 sacks. He spent the final three years of his career in Denver, where he helped the Broncos win Super Bowl L. In his 12-year career, Ware finished with 138.5 career sacks, eighth in NFL history.

He was voted first-team All-Pro four times (2007-09, 2011), selected to nine Pro Bowls (2007-13, 2015-16) and was voted a member of the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 2000s.

Ware, who played collegiately at a small Division I school in Troy University, came into the NFL as an underdog with something to prove. He did just that, starting all 16 games at right outside linebacker as a rookie and amassed 58 tackles and a team-high 8.0 sacks.

Ware's rookie campaign was the first step into what would become a Hall of Fame career, as he led the Cowboys in sacks in each season from 2006-12. Ware was the NFL's sack leader in 2008 (20.0) and 2010 (15.5). Ware's 20.0 sacks in 2008 are a single season franchise-record, and in 2011 Ware barely missed becoming the first ever league defender to reach 20.0-or-more sacks in multiple seasons, finishing second in the league with 19.5. Despite coming up just short of 20.0 sacks, Ware paired up with Mark Gastineau as the only two men in league history with two seasons of 19.0-or-more sacks.

"I couldn't be more proud of - and happy for - DeMarcus Ware for this well-deserved recognition," Jerry Jones said. "His approach to the game, on and off the field, embodied all the traits it takes to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He was a ferocious pass rusher on the field, and a true leader and role model in the locker room and in the community. We knew from the first moment he stepped on the practice field that DeMarcus was destined for greatness. The extra effort and time that he put in at practice to teach and help our offensive line be the best they could be was extraordinary and yet another example of the total team commitment he had and how it consumed him. DeMarcus earned this very rare and special place in NFL history every single day of his career."

In his 12-year career, Ware only had one season with a losing record and advanced to the postseason five times, including starting at linebacker for the Broncos in the Super Bowl L victory, where he recorded 2.0 sacks.

"I always said my pads talk," Ware said. "My pads did the talking. I don't have to be rambunctious and talk. Now putting this yellow jacket on, being part of the Hall of Fame, it talks. I don't have to say anything."

Following the 2016 season, Ware signed a ceremonial one-day contract and retired as a Dallas Cowboy.

He was born July 31, 1982, in Auburn, Ala.

WARE'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

★ 9-Time Pro Bowl Selection
★ 4-Time All-Pro
★ Holds the franchise record in sacks (117.0)
★ 9th in NFL History in sacks (138.5)
★ Super Bowl L Title
★ NFL 2000s All-Decade Team
★ 2-Time Butkus Award Winner - Troy University

54 ★ RANDY WHITE ★
Defensive Tackle, 1975-1988
INDUCTED – 1994

Randy White came to the Cowboys from the University of Maryland as the No. 2 pick in the 1975 NFL Draft. Before his career was over, 14 years later, he would become known as the "Manster" – half man, half defensive monster – setting numerous franchise records as the heart-and-soul of the famed "Doomsday Defense."

White struggled in his first two years with the Cowboys when then head coach Tom Landry moved White from his familiar defensive tackle position to linebacker. But, after Landry moved White back to right tackle in 1977, White became one of the NFL's most dominating defensive linemen and a coveted co-Super Bowl MVP.

"Coming out of college a lot was expected of me," White said. "But I never did feel comfortable playing linebacker. Those first two years I was fighting for my life out there. Then they switched me to defensive tackle, where I was a lot more comfortable and from there my career took off."

White played 14 seasons, tying him for third all-time in franchise history, and he set a franchise record with eight All-Pro selections. White also was selected to nine Pro Bowls, ranking third in franchise history for Pro Bowl appearances. White's 16.0 sacks in 1978 rank third in franchise history for a single season, and he still remains third all-time in career tackles with 1,104, second with 701 career solo tackles and third in team history with 111.0 career sacks.

"His performances range anywhere from spectacular to spectacular," Landry once said. "He could outmatch anybody's intensity from game to game."

In his career, White played in six NFC Championship Games and three Super Bowls, claiming victory in Super Bowl XII and co-MVP honors with teammate Harvey Martin. Even more astounding, White only missed one game in his 14-year career.

In 1994, White was inducted into the Ring of Honor with teammate Tony Dorsett, the same year he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

"Any honor I receive is a reflection on the great teammates and coaches I had in my career," White said. "There's a real special group of guys with the Cowboys, and to be a part of that was a great honor."

He was born Jan. 15, 1953, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

70 ★ RAYFIELD WRIGHT ★
Offensive Tackle, 1967-79
INDUCTED – 2006

Only 11 players have played football for the Dallas Cowboys longer than Rayfield Wright's 13 seasons, and only nine players in the history of the Cowboys organization have been to more Pro Bowls than Wright's six.

After playing tight end, tackle and defensive end during his first three NFL seasons, Wright settled in at right tackle in 1970. Before undergoing knee surgery that forced him to miss most of the 1977 season, Wright was acknowledged as the NFL's premier offensive tackle. Wright was selected to six straight Pro Bowls (1971-76) as a tackle while earning All-Pro honors four times and earning recognition on the NFL's all-decade team for the 1970s.

During each of his 13 seasons, the Cowboys offense ranked in the top six in the NFL for total offense, including leading the league five times. Behind his blocking, Calvin Hill became the first 1,000-yard rusher in team history when he ran for 1,036 yards in 1972. All totaled, Dallas had a running back clear the 1,000-yard barrier five times during his tenure. Also behind his blocking, Roger Staubach became the first quarterback in franchise history to throw for more than 3,000 yards in a season when he totaled 3,190 passing yards in 1978, the year Wright returned from his knee surgery.

In his 13-year NFL career with the Dallas Cowboys, Wright was a key contributor to teams that had 13 straight winning seasons, made 12 playoff trips and won 10 division titles. COMEBACK COWBOYS - The Dallas Cowboys rallied from a 20-point deficit against the Atlanta Falcons and won the game on a 46-yard Greg Zuerlein field goal as time expired, taking their only lead of the game in the 40-39 win. THE LIONBACKER - Micah Parsons capped one of the most prolific first seasons in NFL history with the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year award - first ever Cowboy to win the award - adding to his overflowing trophy case of honors and acknowledgments. Parsons set the Cowboys rookie sack record with 13.0 takedowns in 2021, which also tied the third-most by any rookie in NFL history, and tallied a full sack in six consecutive games to become the third rookie in league history (since 1982 when sacks became official) to record a six-game streak with a full sack, joining Jevon Kearse (eight games) and Mike Croel (six games).

AP ASSISTANT COACH OF THE YEAR - Defensive Coordinator Dan Quinn was named the 2021 AP Assistant Coach of the Year after leading Dallas to improvements in essentially every major defensive statistical category in 2021, becoming one of the most dynamic units in the NFL. The defense forced a league-high 34 takeaways and scored a league-best and franchise-record six defensive touchdowns in 2021, while also finishing second in the NFL in third down defense (34.1%) and opponent three-and-out drives (43) and ranking seventh in opponent points-per-game (21.1).

NFC EAST CHAMPS - Dallas earned its 21st NFC East Division title since the division was first formed in 1970, its fourth division crown in the last six seasons, and went a perfect 6-0 against its division in 2021 - marking just the third division sweep in a season in team history, joining the 1969 and 1998 Cowboys teams.

NO SILENCING THIS LAMB - In his first year as the No. 1 receiver for Dallas, CeeDee Lamb had a breakout season with 107 receptions. Lamb became the third player in franchise history to reach 100 catches in a season, joining Michael Irvin (111 in 1995) and Jason Witten (110 in 2012). Lamb also displayed his big-play ability, reeling in 24 catches of 20-plus yards, tied for third in the NFL in 2022. After recording five 100-yard receiving games in his first two seasons combined, Lamb tallied five 100-yard games in 2022 alone, and his 10 career 100-yard games are the second-most by a Cowboys receiver through his first three seasons.

THE LION IS ALWAYS HUNGRY - After a record-setting rookie season in 2021, Micah Parsons was on the prowl once again, finishing seventh in the NFL with a career-high 13.5 sacks. He is the first player in Cowboys history with double-digit sacks in each of his first two seasons, and Parsons joined Aldon Smith and Reggie White as the only three NFL players since 1982 with 13.0-plus sacks in each of their first two seasons. Parsons also racked up six multi-sack games in 2022, tying DeMarcus Ware for the most multi-sack contests in a season.

MONEY MAHER - Brett Maher signed with the Cowboys during training camp in Oxnard, Calif., prior to the season. Bland jumped an out route from Washington's Sam Howell, and the second-year corner returned the interception 63 yards as the Cowboys defeated the Commanders 45-10.

HOME SWEET HOME - The Cowboys finished the regular season with an 8-0 record at AT&T stadium, marking the team's first perfect home regular season since 1981. Dallas stretched their home winning streak to 16 games, the longest active streak in the NFL and second-longest in franchise history.

FEEDING LAMB - CeeDee Lamb set two single-season franchise records in receptions (135) and receiving yards (1,749). BUTTER AUBREY - First-year standout Brandon Aubrey earned his 'butter' nickname as he shattered three NFL records. Aubrey made 35 consecutive field goals to start the season, which became the most made without a miss to start a career in NFL history. He also scored 157 points, a single-season franchise record and the most scored in a first NFL season. Aubrey also added 99 touchbacks, setting a NFL single-season record while finishing the year with 36 field goals, the most made in a season in Cowboys history.

NFC BEAST - Dallas earned its 22nd NFC East Division title since the division was first formed in 1970, 13th under Jerry Jones' stewardship and the second in the Mike McCarthy era. The Cowboys posted a 5-1 record against divisional opponents and outscored their division rivals 228-78.

Two weeks later, the Cowboys and Dak Prescott inked a four-year extension for $240 million, making Prescott the highest paid player in NFL history according to average annual value ($60 million/year). Prescott's deal also included $231 million guaranteed, the most guaranteed money among any player in NFL history.

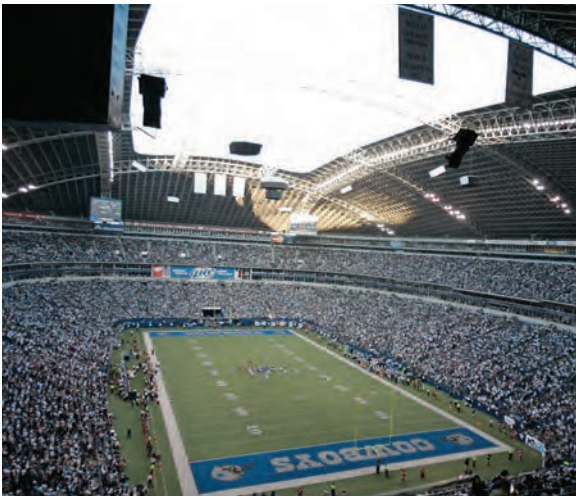
Home to the Dallas Cowboys

The Dallas Cowboys have called three different stadiums home during their 65 years of existence. Their original home was the Cotton Bowl (1960-1971), followed by Texas Stadium (1971-2008) and finally their current home, AT&T Stadium (2009-present).

Cotton Bowl

The original Fair Park football stadium was built in 1921 and seated 15,000. That wooden structure was razed in 1930 and construction began on what is now the Cotton Bowl. The original seating capacity of the stadium was 46,200 and built at a cost of $328,000. In January 1936, Fair Park Stadium was officially renamed The Cotton Bowl in recognition of the fact that more cotton was raised within 200 miles of Dallas than any other town in America. Later additions of upper decks on each side increased capacity to 75,504 by the time the Cowboys arrived in 1960. From 1960 into the 1971 season, the Cowboys called the Cotton Bowl home, posting a 45-33-4 record, including a 2-2 mark in postseason. Until 2009, the largest home crowd in club history was the 80,259 fans that packed into the Cotton Bowl on Nov. 24, 1966 to watch the Cowboys defeat the Cleveland Browns 26-14 in the inaugural Thanksgiving Day game in Dallas.

Texas Stadium



Texas Stadium, a football facility built at a cost of $35 million in 1971, was the home of the Dallas Cowboys for 38 seasons and hosted its final game on Dec. 20, 2008 against the Baltimore Ravens. The Cowboys opened their facility on Oct. 24, 1971 with a 44-21 victory over New England. During that time, the Cowboys posted a 213-100 record (.681), including a 16-6 (.727) mark in the postseason, at home. Located in the Dallas suburb of Irving, Texas Stadium had a seating capacity of 65,581 and featured 381 luxury suites, 52 concession stands, 40 specialty stands, 86 restrooms, 115 drinking fountains and 130 acres of parking. Texas Stadium's most unique feature was the partial roof which covered fans from inclement weather but left the game outdoors. The Cowboys incorporated the design feature in their current home, which also includes a retractable roof.

AT&T Stadium

On Nov. 2, 2004, the voters of Arlington approved a public-private partnership with the Dallas Cowboys to build a state-of-the-art, retractable roof stadium in Arlington, Texas. Located in the heart of Arlington's entertainment district, construction on the stadium began in April 2006 and was completed early in the summer of 2009.

The largest NFL stadium ever built was designed to enhance the international Cowboys brand with its modern progressive architecture while incorporating elements of the Texas Stadium heritage such as the shape of the roof's opening, the Ring of Honor and Tom Landry statue.

The 3.0-million-square-foot stadium has a capacity of up to 100,000. The stadium features signature monumental arches, an expansive retractable roof, massive glass retractable end zone doors, a distinguishing canted glass wall and one of the world's largest center-hung HD video boards.

"The challenge for us with this stadium was to innovate, but at the same time never forget to acknowledge tradition," said Jerry Jones, owner, president and general manager, Dallas Cowboys. "This stadium embodies the spirit of the Dallas Cowboys, and that starts with the familiar 'hole in the roof.' What we have designed is a building we believe is both architecturally significant and also reflects the emotion and competition that goes on inside."

The stadium was designed by HKS Architects, one of the top stadium designers in the world. The stadium was renamed AT&T Stadium on July 25, 2013 after the Cowboys and AT&T announced a long-term agreement.

The 2009 season rang in a new era for the Dallas Cowboys as the club moved to its new home in Arlington, Texas to kick off the 2009 season. Officially opened on May 27, 2009 in a ribbon cutting ceremony, then named Cowboys Stadium hosted the first Cowboys game on Aug. 21 - a preseason contest against the Tennessee Titans. The first regular season Cowboys game was on September 20 against the N.Y. Giants, and the game set an NFL attendance record at 105,121.

Not only is the stadium home to the Dallas Cowboys, but it played host to Super Bowl XLV on February 6, 2011, the first Super Bowl in the region. This venue is also home to the annual Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic, Big 12 Championship, as well as annual college football games. On Jan. 12, 2015, AT&T Stadium hosted the first ever College Football Playoff National Championship Game, and the venue is also a part of the rotation for the College Football Playoff semifinal games. In April 2014, the stadium hosted the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four. In 2024, AT&T Stadium was awarded a tournament-high nine matches - including a semi-final match - for the 2026 FIFA World Cup.

Key Design Highlights

★ Monumental Arches – The stadium features two monumental arches, soaring 292 feet above the playing field, which support a retractable roof. As the longest single span roof structure in the world, each boxed arch is 17 feet wide by 35 feet deep. Weighing 3,255 tons each, these impressive structures span a quarter mile (1,290 feet) in length. As one of the first components to be constructed, the arches form a striking silhouette on the Arlington landscape as sunlight reflects against the metallic surface during the day.

★ Retractable Roof – Designed to be open or closed, depending on weather conditions, the expansive retractable roof is the largest of its kind in the world and measures approximately 661,000 square feet. When closed, the roof encompasses 104 million cubic feet of volume, making it the largest enclosed NFL stadium. The retractable roof is designed specifically to emulate the opening at Texas Stadium, which was recognized around the world, and allows views inward and outward. Each panel can open or close in 10 minutes. The entire playing field can be seen from directly above.

★ Retractable Doors – The stadium features the largest retractable end zone doors in the world. Each has a five-leaf, clear, retractable opening measuring 120 feet high by 180 feet wide. The five 38-foot panels take only six minutes to open or close. By using clear glass for the door panels, spectators experience panoramic vistas from within the seating bowl and when circulating through the stadium concourses. Moreover, the operability provides air circulation during game-day and non-game-day events.

★ Center-Hung Videoboard – Within the seating bowl, Cowboys fans are provided with a one-of-a-kind feature unlike any other in the world, a center-hung videoboard. Hanging 90 feet above the field from the roof structure, the innovative videoboard center spans between the 20-yard lines and features four individual boards – two facing the sidelines and two facing the end zones. The sideline boards measure 160 feet wide by 72 feet tall while those facing the end zones measure 53 feet by 30 feet. All four boards are angled toward the stands for optimal viewing. The stunning combination of these boards immerses spectators with video imagery, creating a premium on upper level seats and presenting the game in a way never before experienced. The center-hung video board now features UHD Resolution utilizing 450 million pixels and HDR Color Rendition.

★ Canted Glass Wall – One of the most compelling architectural features of the stadium design is the canted glass exterior wall. The 86-foot high glass, curtain-wall surface slopes outwardly at a 14 degree angle to create a luminescent glow day or night. A fritted glass system transitions up the elevation to create a dynamic, ever-changing aesthetic depending on the time of day. At night, a series of internal lights gently wash the glass wall to create a glow across the facade.

★ Suites – The design includes over 300 suites that have been decentralized and are in eight locations distributed across five separate levels of the stadium. The most unique are the field-level sideline suites for up-close and personal viewing of the games.

Design Statistics

★ Total Square Footage: 3.0 million square feet. The entire Statue of Liberty and its base could fit into the stadium with the roof closed. The stadium is also the world's largest column-free room. The American Airlines Center in Dallas could fit entirely into the stadium at field level.

★ Interior Cubic Volume: 104 million cubic feet. (By comparison, NRG Stadium in Houston measures 90 million cubic feet.) AT&T Stadium is the largest enclosed stadium (in cubic feet) in the NFL.

★ Seating Capacity: With ticketed areas in the end zone plazas and platforms, capacity can reach over 100,000.

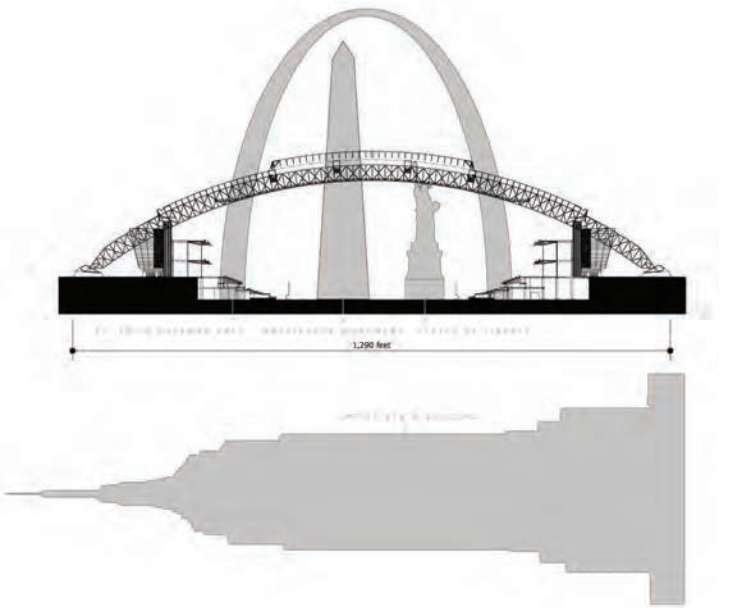
★ Suites: There are over 300 suites in eight different locations on five separate levels of the stadium. Field-level suites are available on the sidelines as well as in the end zones for up-close and personal viewing of the games. The Optum Hall of Fame level suites are 20 rows from the field, making them some of the closest elevated suites in the NFL.

★ Domed Roof: At 661,000 square feet, the stadium is the largest domed structure in North America.

★ Retractable Roof: The open roof design that was a unique feature of Texas Stadium was carried over into the design of the stadium, with the improvement of a new retractable feature, revealing an opening that measures 256 feet wide and 410 feet long. Two bi-parting mechanized roof panels are driven by a rack-and-pinion drive system consisting of 64 7.5 HP electric motors, making it the first of its kind in the world. The open/close time is 10 minutes.

★ Arches: The roof is supported by two 35-feet deep and 17-feet wide boxed arch trusses. Each truss spans nearly a quarter mile (1,290 feet) making the roof one of the longest clear-span structures in the world. The arches are more than twice the length of the Gateway Arch in St. Louis.

★ Glass Retractable Doors: Each end zone features a five-leaf clear glass retractable door measuring 120 feet high and 180 feet wide, making it the tallest movable glass wall in the world.



As the largest NFL venue ever built, the stadium boasts the most spectacular column-free room in the world, stretching a quarter-mile in length. Encasing 3.0 million square feet, the majestic scale of the stadium measures twice the distance of the St. Louis Gateway arch. In addition, the Statue of Liberty can stand completely inside the room structure. The length of the arches spans the same distance as the height of the Empire State Building. The magnitude of the stadium's size and scale places it on the world's stage of iconic structures.

AT&T Stadium Facts and Figures

On July 25, 2013, two iconic American brands - the Dallas Cowboys and AT&T - jointly announced an expansion of their long-standing relationship to include a new name for the team's home, AT&T Stadium, as well as plans to create an innovative, mobile-first experience for fans.

"AT&T is an iconic American leader that has guided the path of communication in the world for more than 100 years," said Cowboys owner Jerry Jones. "Our stadium has always been about providing fans with an unsurpassed experience in the area of technology. With AT&T, we are growing our relationship with one of the world's strongest and most innovative companies to ultimately provide fans with the latest cutting-edge technology for many years to come."

The name change is reflected in substantial signage updates throughout the building, prominently featuring AT&T, both inside and outside of the stadium. The Cowboys and AT&T work together to deliver an interactive game day experience for fans like no other. AT&T and the Cowboys continue to invest in advanced mobile technology in and around AT&T Stadium to benefit all visitors.

AT&T Stadium - What Fans Need to Know

★ Access

One of the great assets Arlington has is accessibility to the entire metroplex. There are 14 approaches from major highways into AT&T Stadium in Arlington. From a regional standpoint, the stadium is one of the most accessible venues ever planned.

★ Parking

It is estimated that between parking under control of the Cowboys, as well as entrepreneurial lots around the stadium, there are as many as 30,000 parking spaces available to fans on game day.

★ Outdoors Areas and Open End Zones

The stadium design incorporates two open end zones with glass retractable doors measuring 120 feet high and 180 feet wide, making them the tallest glass retractable doors in the world. Outside these doors, one in each end zone – along with the three party decks in each end zone – create over 420,000 square feet of entertainment space (approximately 10 acres). Media boards and large-screen monitors add entertainment to the area, and create a festival atmosphere, making these areas a great space for people to gather before, during and after events to socialize. The field is 50 feet below ground level, so fans entering on the ground floor will have a panoramic view over the field. The end zone area has the flexibility to convert from standing-room only to seating, based on specific event needs.

★ Video Boards

There are approximately 3,000 televisions in the building, with the most unique being the four board cluster that is suspended 90 feet directly over the center of the playing surface. The board runs from the 20-yard line to the 20-yard line - measuring 160 feet in length and 72 feet in height - making it one of the world's largest center-hung video board installations, setting a Guinness Book World Record. The center video board allows fans on all levels to view the game in crisp, clear images during the game. This creates a premium on the value of the upper-level seats and makes the game more exciting for all fans.

★ Amenities and Restrooms

The stadium features 824 concession points of sale as well as more than 1,800 toilets. Some of the restrooms are reversible based on the needs of the event.

★ Ring of Honor

Members of the Dallas Cowboys Ring of Honor are forever honored on the wall surrounding the field, emblazoned with the same letters and numbers that originally hung proudly at Texas Stadium.

★ Miller Lite®House

Located on the west side of AT&T Stadium, Miller Lite®House is the place to go for all pre-game tailgating and post-game celebrations. Fans can grab an ice-cold Miller Lite before finding a seat under the canopy of trees and watching the game on one of over 50 large screen TVs. Or, grab your friends and head over to the 80-yard replica Cowboys field for some tailgate games. Miller Lite®House is also a key location for Dallas Cowboys NFL Season Rally Days and national and local destination music and culinary events year round at AT&T Stadium.

The Star in Frisco

In August 2013, the Dallas Cowboys, in partnership with the City of Frisco and the Frisco Independent School District (FISD), announced plans for The Star in Frisco - a vision that would become home of the Dallas Cowboys World Corporate Headquarters and Training Facility. Officially opened to the public in August 2016, The Star in Frisco is a leading entertainment destination.

The Star is located in Frisco, Texas, a suburb north of Dallas, Texas that boasts more than 200,000 residents. The facility is comprised of four mixed-use developments along the Dallas North Tollway in between Warren Parkway and Lebanon Road.

Plans for the 91-acre mixed-use development quickly grew from the Dallas Cowboys World Corporate Headquarters to become a destination that featured shopping, dining and nightlife, as well as athletic, fitness, health, event, hotel and residential options.

In partnership with the City of Frisco and Frisco ISD, the Cowboys focused on inspiring the next generation of players and fans by uniquely engaging them at the place where the Dallas Cowboys live, work and practice.

The Star became the first NFL training facility in the U.S. that is shared with a public high school athletic program. All 12 Frisco ISD high schools play games within Ford Center at The Star, a state-of-the-art, 510,000-square-foot indoor athletic facility. With a capacity of 12,000 seats, Ford Center hosts a variety of events in addition to football games, such as the Academy of Country Music Awards, professional boxing, lacrosse and soccer matches, collegiate basketball tournaments, concerts, meetings and more.

"Moving from Valley Ranch to The Star was bittersweet," said Jerry Jones, owner and president, Dallas Cowboys. "We had a lot of history and memories there, but what is exciting now is what we've built at The Star that goes beyond just the Dallas Cowboys team. It involves these young, talented athletes from Frisco ISD; it involves the entire Frisco community with what we offer from training, health and wellness, to dining, entertainment, shopping and more. We've put our heart and soul into this next chapter for the Cowboys, and we love watching fans experience everything that The Star has to offer."

The Cowboys worked with several companies to develop all elements of The Star, including Manhattan Construction Group, Gensler, O'Brien Architects, ICRAVE, Advent Design Corp., Kimley-Horn and Associates, Walter P. Moore, and Henderson Engineers, Inc.

The Cowboys officially moved into The Star in July 2016 and held the first event in Ford Center on August 27, 2016: The Star Kickoff presented by Whataburger - a one-day event that featured eight FISD high school varsity football teams.

Print and digital editions are available at DallasCowboys.com/star.

Throughout the 1960s, the Dallas Cowboys held tryouts for local high school students to cheer for the Dallas Cowboys at the Cotton Bowl. By the early 1970s, an effort was underway to enhance the glamour, excitement and entertainment value of the NFL gameday experience. Director Dee Brock hired choreographer, Texie Waterman, who auditioned dancers and taught her signature Broadway-style routines. In 1972, Tex Schramm and Dee Brock joined forces with local designer, Paula Van Wagoner, and introduced Texas Stadium to the reimagined Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders. Wearing the classic star-spangled blue-and-white uniform, the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders became an international phenomenon.

By the mid-seventies, the squad's national popularity created such a sensation that two top-rated, made-for-tv movies, were produced. The DCC have made guest appearances on national television shows such as, 'The Love Boat', 'Saturday Night Live', 'The Oprah Winfrey Show', 'Family Feud', 'David Letterman', 'The Today Show', 'American Idol' and 'American Ninja Warrior'. Benefitting charity, they competed on '1 versus 100', 'Are You Smarter Than a Fifth Grader', and 'Identity'. For more than two decades, they produced 'The Making of the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders Swimsuit Calendar' television special for network and social media distribution. With 16 Seasons of 'Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders: Making the Team', the DCC became the subject of Country Music Television's longest running and highest rated TV show in CMT history, earning them a Critics Choice Award nomination. Premiering in summer 2024, the Netflix series 'America's Sweethearts: Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders' debuted at No. 1 and offers a dazzling, behind-the-scenes look at the iconic squad's journey. The documentary captures the intensity of auditions, the challenges of training and the excitement of performing at AT&T Stadium - giving viewers a front-row seat to the dedication and spirit that define America's Sweethearts. Both seasons one and two are now streaming on Netflix.

Kelli Finglass
Senior Director

In 1979 the Department of Defense requested the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders presence on a South Korean USO Tour during the Christmas holidays. These collaborative efforts over the past four decades have evolved into 86 tours, more international entertainment trips to U.S. military bases than any other professional performer or group. The DCC bring their own special brand of goodwill and gratitude to the military personnel and their families traveling to diverse locations such as Iraq, Bosnia, Afghanistan, Cuba, Korea and the Persian Gulf. In recognition of their distinguished service to American Troops, the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders were presented the 'USO's 50th Anniversary Award' in 1991 and the Department of Defense presented the squad with the first ever 'Spirit of Hope Award' in 1997. They were inducted into the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall of Fame in 2002, and in 2013, the DCC were awarded the American Legion's prestigious Distinguished Service Medal. The Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders are the only group, to date, to be recognized with all four of these honors.

Judy Trammell
Head Choreographer

The DCC continue to have a tremendous impact on sports and entertainment. 'America's Sweethearts' are recognized around the world as an elite performance group and, while they are often imitated, their iconic uniform is one of the most well-known symbols of pop culture. In 2018 the uniform was donated to the Sports Entertainment and Pop Culture Collection in the Smithsonian National Museum of American History.

While the DCC grace the sidelines of AT&T Stadium, they are also active in their community, making annual visits to children's hospitals, veteran's hospitals, senior living centers and elementary schools. They are also in demand throughout the year at festivals, sporting events, corporate conventions and headliner concerts around the country. They frequently appear on national magazine covers, television commercials and films. Their annual calendar collection includes a swimsuit calendar, sideline action calendar, cameo calendar and a 120-page special edition of The Dallas Cowboys Star Magazine.

The Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders are truly extraordinary dancers with impressive careers in education, law, nursing and accounting, just to name a few. Chief Brand Officer/Co-Owner, Charlotte Jones, has entrusted the leadership of the squad to Senior Director Kelli Finglass and Head Choreographer Judy Trammell. This dynamic duo, driven by the highest of standards, has consistently led this time-tested group of diverse women for over 30 years. Often imitated, never equaled… they are 'America's Sweethearts'.

The Rhythm and Blue brings a refreshingly innovative, unique and exciting element to the Cowboys legendary game-day entertainment line-up. The talented group of men and women who make up "DCRB" entertain audiences from around the world as they enter the plazas of AT&T Stadium before each game. Jenny Durbin Smith

The first and only crew of its kind in the NFL, this group of exceptionally talented dancers are between the ages of 7-16 years old. The Rookie Squad fosters an opportunity for these extraordinary performers to gain valuable dance and performance training to grow as professional performers.

Jenny Durbin Smith leads DCRB and the Rookie Squad with her expertise and award-winning choreography as director and head choreographer for the team. Durbin Smith has been choreographing for 20 years for teams such as the NFL Pro Bowl Cheerleaders, Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders, Dallas Mavericks Dancers, Dallas Desperados Dancers, The Officials, NFL & NBA Pro Cheerleader Conventions and numerous NBA, college, high school and studio competition teams. She has also lent her skills to several national television commercials, television shows, touring stage shows and promotions such as Oprah's Vision Tour in Dallas, 'America's Got Talent', Mary Kay, Hasbro, MTV's 'TRL,' 'Queen of the South' and Monday Night Football. Durbin Smith uses her extensive dance experience and authentic coaching style to fashion a one-of-a-kind entertainment concept within the professional sports arena.

The DCRB and Rookie Squad uniforms were created by Jenny Durbin Smith in partnership with Rebel Athletic, a proud partner of the Dallas Cowboys Rhythm and Blue Dancers. The uniform bears the standard of a contemporary, stylish and hip Cowboys image while keeping the tradition and excellence of America's Team.

The Dallas Cowboys are known globally as pioneers of game-day entertainment. "We want to revolutionize sports entertainment by thinking 'outside of the box' and bringing content that is innovative, dynamic and unique to the world of professional sports entertainment, while also complimenting our existing game-day elements," Durbin Smith says of DCRB. The result is your highly acclaimed Rhythm and Blue!

Dallas Cowboys Arlington ISD Art Program

The Dallas Cowboys / Arlington ISD Fifth Grade Art Program presented by Whataburger at AT&T Stadium provides students an opportunity to tour the extensive Dallas Cowboys Art Collection throughout the year at no cost, courtesy of the Jones Family and Whataburger. After their tour, each student creates a personal piece of art inspired by the collection, fostering an appreciation for the arts, and encouraging continued art education. In December the program hosts a special recognition event at AT&T Stadium for the graduating seniors who completed the program as undergraduates. The event includes a curated display of the seniors' artwork for all fans to view at AT&T Stadium. Mrs. Gene Jones, Arlington ISD Superintendent Dr. Matt Smith and Whataburger CEO Debbie Stroud hosted the 2025 senior class on field for a special pregame moment of recognition at the Dallas Cowboys Monday Night Football match-up against the Cincinnati Bengals, with Mrs. Jones gifting each student a commemorative coin to acknowledge their journey through the AISD Art Program. Since the program's inception, more than 44,000 Arlington ISD students have participated in the program. Community Outreach and the Dallas Cowboys

THE SALVATION ARMY

The Dallas Cowboys and the Jones Family have a longstanding passion for, and commitment to The Salvation Army. From 2010 to 2014, Chief Brand Officer and Co-Owner Charlotte Jones served as chair of The Salvation Army's National Advisory Board - the first woman to ever hold that distinguished title. Gene and Jerry Jones have both served on The Salvation Army's National Advisory Board, as well as the local DFW Metroplex Command's Advisory Board. For a full history of the Jones Family's partnership with The Salvation Army, visit DallasCowboys.com/community.

Red Kettle Campaign

For the past 28 years, the Jones Family has dedicated the Cowboys annual Thanksgiving Day halftime performance as a national showcase to kick off The Salvation Army's iconic Red Kettle Campaign. Under the direction of Charlotte Jones, the Cowboys have produced the annual halftime event and welcomed renowned entertainers from across the musical spectrum. Performers have included Randy Travis, Carrie Underwood, The Jonas Brothers, Kenny Chesney, Selena Gomez, Meghan Trainor, Dolly Parton, and most recently Lainey Wilson. Since 1997, The Salvation Army has served more than 800 million people though programs that address homelessness, food insecurity, drug and alcohol abuse, human trafficking and more. In that same period, and with the help of the Dallas Cowboys, the Red Kettle Campaign has raised more than $3.67 billion to aid the work.

Early Thanksgiving with the Cowboys

Traditionally, the week before Thanksgiving, Gene Jones and Charlotte Jones lead players, cheerleaders, mascot Rowdy and players' and coaches' wives and significant others in serving an early Thanksgiving meal to hundreds of clients receiving assistance from The Salvation Army. With help from partners Albertsons and UnitedHealthcare, the effort has served more than 15,000 meals in its history. Veteran players and wives serve clients of the Army's Carr P. Collins Social Service Center in Dallas, while rookie players and cheerleaders visit the Army's Mabee Social Services Center in Fort Worth.

The Salvation Army Angel Tree Program

Every year the entire Dallas Cowboys organization, its partners and associates support The Salvation Army's Angel Tree program. Players, coaches, executives and staff join corporate partners and leaseholders at The Star in purchasing toys and necessities for hundreds of "Angels" in need. The program, which makes Christmas brighter for nearly 60,000 children and special needs senior citizens in the DFW Metroplex alone, is truly a team effort for the Cowboys.

50/50 Raffle

The Dallas Cowboys launched their 50/50 Raffle program at AT&T Stadium in 2016 in part to raise additional funds to impact programming at The Salvation Army. Raffle tickets are sold to fans during each home game, with a drawing to determine which lucky fan will split the game's jackpot with The Salvation Army. Since its inception, the effort has grossed more than $7.5 million dollars, with The Salvation Army receiving approximately half of that amount to support a variety of initiatives from youth outreach to veteran's assistance and domestic violence shelter programs. In 2023 the Cowboys began dedicating the jackpot raised during the team's annual Salute to Service military appreciation game to the National Medal of Honor Museum Foundation. All other 50/50 Raffle home games benefit The Salvation Army.

Gene and Jerry Jones Family North Texas Youth Education Town

Thanks to a $1 million matching grant from Gene and Jerry Jones Family Arlington Youth Foundation in concurrence with a donation from the NFL, the Gene and Jerry Jones Family North Texas Youth Education Town (the "YET") officially opened its doors at The Salvation Army Arlington Corps in October 2013. The YET is the legacy project of Super Bowl XLV, providing educational, athletic and arts programs to hundreds of Arlington youth and their families, as well as countless other services. The Jones Family was joined by several distinguished guests in celebrating the center's grand opening, including NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, National Commander of The Salvation Army Commissioner David Jeffrey and Cowboys Pro Football Hall of Fame running back and chair of the YET Advisory Board Emmitt Smith. The Dallas Cowboys engage with YET programming year-round, providing unique opportunities to the youth enrolled in the center's daily activities.

Disaster Relief

When disaster strikes, The Salvation Army is often first on the scene to offer food, shelter, clothing, spiritual comfort and more. The Cowboys are proud to assist The Salvation Army in relief efforts in the DFW Metroplex and beyond. Most recently, the Dallas Cowboys worked with The Salvation Army to make donations and provide support to those impacted by the tragic wildfires that struck the Los Angeles and Southern California area in 2024.

NATIONAL MEDAL OF HONOR MUSEUM AND SALUTE TO SERVICE OUTREACH

The Dallas Cowboys and NFL take great pride in honoring our nation's military and veterans during Salute to Service campaigns and at other times throughout the year, across multiple locations - at home in North Texas, at training camp in California, around the world in partnership with the USO, as well as partnering with the National Medal of Honor Museum to honor Medal of Honor recipients and the values of courage and sacrifice, commitment and integrity, and citizenship and patriotism.

National Medal of Honor Museum

In 2019 the National Medal of Honor Museum Foundation (NMOHMF) announced Arlington, Texas, as the site for the museum, which illustrates the historical thread of sacrifice, patriotism and courage that runs through all U.S. military service members, past and present. The National Medal of Honor Griffin Institute, housed at the Museum, focuses on character education for students, business professionals and scholars to empower and foster an understanding of the essential elements of character-driven leadership, honor and love of country. Charlotte Jones, Chief Brand Officer and Co-Owner of the Cowboys, serves as Chairman of the Board for the Museum. In 2020 the Jones Family announced a historic $20 million donation to the National Medal of Honor Museum, and on March 25, 2025 - National Medal of Honor Day - the National Medal of Honor Museum officially opened its doors during a weekend-long ribbon cutting extravaganza that included former Presidents, Medal of Honor recipients, dignitaries and more.

Salute to Service Week

Salute to Service Week is an annual tradition of the Dallas Cowboys, with a variety of military and veteran related community outreach efforts centered in the week leading up to Veterans Day. With focus on the relationship with the National Medal of Honor Museum, the week's events impact several military demographics - veterans, active-duty soldiers, military spouses, children and more. The 2024 Salute to Service Week events included a NFL Character Playbook Live event with National Medal of Honor Museum Foundation CEO Chris Cassidy, Cowboys tight end Jake Ferguson and other special guests at AT&T Stadium, including 1,000 Arlington ISD students; National Medal of Honor Museum Hard Hat Tour with the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders and Medal of Honor recipient General Patrick Brady; Veteran's Day Lunch at the museum construction site attended by Cowboys players and veterans who helped build the museum; an Operation Shower baby shower for 25 military moms-to-be in partnership with PepsiCo and Nuna Baby; and much more. Salute to Service Week culminated with the Dallas Cowboys nationally televised matchup against the Philadelphia Eagles on Nov. 10.

Salute to Service Game

The Cowboys, alongside the NFL, activate an annual Salute to Service campaign honoring members of all six branches of the military both past and present each fall with an emphasis on the National Medal of Honor Museum. Last season, the Dallas Cowboys culminated the celebration on Nov. 10 at AT&T Stadium against the Philadelphia Eagles by incorporating many special moments throughout pre-game, in-game and halftime. Former President George W. Bush and First Lady Laura Bush took part in the coin toss alongside Cowboys Hunter Luepke, Malik Hooker and KaVontae Turpin. Founding Donors who contributed to the National Medal of Honor Museum project had the opportunity to join the Cowboys official trumpet player Freddie Jones on field for the playing of the National Anthem while Medal of Honor Recipients stood shoulder-to-shoulder with the Cowboys. During halftime the Dallas Cowboys recognized current members of all branches of the armed services and Medal of Honor recipients alongside recording artist Kristen Cruz. The Dallas Cowboys 50/50 Raffle benefited the National Medal of Honor Museum that day, with raffle staff and volunteers trading in their traditional red uniforms for National Medal of Honor Museum gold. One lucky fan was able to split the day's $143,000 jackpot with the National Medal of Honor Museum.

Military Days at Training Camp

During summer training camp in Oxnard, California, and at The Star in Frisco, the Cowboys provide military families of nearby military installations - notably the Naval Base Ventura County at Point Mugu, Fort Hood in Killeen, TX and the Naval Air Station Join Reserve Base in Fort Worth - with special opportunities to interact with the team before and after training camp practices. Additionally, the Cowboys support the local chapters of Merging Vets & Players (MVP) in DFW and Oxnard throughout the year. In 2024 Mike McCarthy was recognized with the Catalyst Award at the National MVP Awards Gala for his support of MVP and his outstanding commitment to fostering unity and strengthening community bonds.

Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders USO Tours

The world-famous Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders organization - America's Sweethearts - is completely subsidized by the club for the primary purpose of spreading goodwill on a local, national and international platform. Aside from their obvious game day presence and numerous local community appearances, the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders have participated in USO visits to troops in more than 200 locations since their first tour on Christmas Day 1979. In 2025 the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders participated in their 86th tour by hosting dance performances, a youth cheer clinic, and meet and greets with service members and families in Germany.

YOUTH FOOTBALL DEVELOPMENT

The values learned through team sport carry over to everyday life and provide important skills and tools for success. From football camps to in-school character programming to health and safety clinics, the Dallas Cowboys are working year-round to grow the love and excitement of playing football in all youth.

The Dallas Cowboys FLAG-In-Schools Curriculum

As part of the NFL effort to grow the game of flag football across the country, the Dallas Cowboys are working with NFL FLAG and GenYOUth to provide elementary schools across North Texas the opportunity to add flag football to physical education classes through the NFL FLAG-In-Schools program. The NFL FLAG-In-Schools program has helped more than 16 million students get active since 2014. In an effort to canvas local school districts with initiative, the Dallas Cowboys worked with Fort Worth ISD to provide NFL FLAG-In-School kits to all elementary schools in the district during the 2024-25 school year. The club also hosted a teacher training in the Spring to demonstrate the various curriculum elements available for the educators to implement. Fort Worth joins Dallas ISD in North Texas school districts who have 100% access to the program at the elementary school level.

High School Girls Flag Football

In 2022 the Dallas Cowboys partnered with the NFL, NFL FLAG, the NFL Foundation and Nike to support the varsity girls flag football league in Fort Worth ISD (FWISD). The FWISD girls flag football league was one of the first scholastically organized female flag efforts for a public school system in the State of Texas. Since that time, the Dallas Cowboys High School Girls Flag Football League has grown 500% and now includes more than 80 Texas high schools and more than 2,000 student-athletes. The long-term goal of the effort is to have the sport adopted statewide as a recognized Title IX activity by the Texas UIL. The team kicked off the 2024-25 league with camps, clinics and scrimmage days sponsored by Nike, Bridgestone and Oakley. To officially launch the spring league this year, Cowboys quarterback Dak Prescott joined team Chief Brand Officer/Co-Owner Charlotte Jones and NFL VP of Flag Football Stephanie Kwok for a kickoff press conference at AT&T Stadium during the league's Jersey Reveal and Media Day – a special moment where the student-athletes were able to see their uniforms for the very first time modeled by their teammates before suiting up to get headshots, media photos and interviews. Games were played across North Texas on school campuses, at district facilities and at The Star in Frisco, with the North Texas League Championship being played inside Ford Center in front of team's friends and families. Martin High School from Arlington ISD took home the first ever Dallas Cowboys High School Girls Flag Football North Texas Regional Championship with a win over DeSoto High School. The Dallas Cowboys also worked with Austin ISD and with El Paso's Region 19 Girls Flag Football Pilot Program to bring the sport to a broader audience outside of North Texas.

Community Camps & Field Days

The Dallas Cowboys work with non-profits and local school districts to host free community camps for those youth who might otherwise have barriers to attendance or may need special adaptations to their camp experience. In partnership with Nike, the Dallas Cowboys hosted a flag football camp for Native American youth served by the Band of Mission Indians in Southern California during the team's 2024 training camp. Hosted at California Baptist University in San Bernadino, California, the camp provided approximately 200 youth of indigenous background the opportunity to access a high-quality camp experience at no cost to them or their families. Additionally, the Cowboys partnered with Oakley and the City of Oxnard to host a free youth football camp for 400 children on-site at the team's training camp practice facility in Ventura County. Students received free t-shirts, snacks courtesy of Dairy MAX and the chance to walk away with complimentary Oakley eyewear for a job well done. The Dallas Cowboys use Community Field Days as an opportunity to demonstrate how adaptable the game of football can be, by partnering with Special Olympics and the Texas Lottery for an inclusive Field Day at Ford Center in Frisco and the Boys & Girls Club of Collin County with help from Smoothie King. Both camps allow students of all socio-economic means and physical / mental challenges the chance to enjoy the game in a safe and fun environment.

The program aims to provide high school assistant coaches with an opportunity to observe, discuss and gain knowledge of coaching at the highest level with the goal of potentially increasing the number of diverse head coaching candidates available to lead high school football programs in North Texas. The attending coaches participated in discussions on resumes and networking, setting up a staff, talent evaluation, moving up through the ranks and shared challenges and best practices for leadership both on and off the field.

Gatorade Speed & Agility Series

In partnership with Gatorade, the Dallas Cowboys developed a series of clinics available to both boys and girls of all sports that utilizes the movement and drills of football to help athletes increase speed, endurance and flexibility. In 2024 the team offered a one-day program model for high schools looking to host their feeder middle school student-athletes to a workout on the upper campus to create connection and camaraderie between the rising students and their future coaches. More than 300 middle school students who will matriculate to Carrollton-Farmers Branch ISD's R.L. Turner High School worked with Cowboys Youth Football Coaches and the school's athletic staff to go through a variety of stations during the event. The camp series was also offered at Princeton High School in 2024, with an eye to expand to other campuses across North Texas in the Fall of 2025.

Youth Coaches Clinic

The Dallas Cowboys coaching staff has made a tradition of hosting a one-day teaching clinic for youth, middle and high school football coaches from across the region every summer. Close to the heart of Cowboys Owner, President and General Manager Jerry Jones, the event allows participants to attend for free and features presentations from Cowboys position coaches and coordinators, as well as remarks from the Dallas Cowboys Head Coach and Mr. Jones himself. Participants receive complimentary team merchandise, lunch, information on USA Football, NFL FLAG and NCAA Eligibility, as well as tickets to a Dallas Cowboys preseason home game.
